

Today in the Quad-Cities

Difficult campaign

Campaigning for local April elections is an unusually awkward task due to activities of the fake "policeman" who has visited four homes and committed one rape.

Those seeking voters' support through house-to-house canvassing say residents are much more reluctant than normal to open their doors to persons they do not know.

"I'm now taking my wife with me for all campaigning," one Granite City candidate reports.

1,000 to laud 'Senator Sam'

Leading elective officials from Washington, Springfield and this region will be among those honoring "Senator Sam." The veteran Edwardsville Democratic legislator heads the Illinois Senate committee on state appointments.

Weather outlook for this region

Clearing this afternoon with high in mid-30s. Low tonight 20 to 28. Mostly sunny and a little warmer Friday with high in the 40s. Chance of thundershowers Saturday night or Sunday with lows in 30s and highs in the 50s. Clearing Monday, with low about 30 and high near 50.

Bridge is sold

By WALTER STRANGE
Press-Record Staff Writer
The Madison City Council, acting on a recommendation of the council's Bridge Committee, approved the sale of the city-owned Chain of Rocks bridge Tuesday evening to Charles E. Wilson and Associates of Lansing, Mich., for $103,000.

The Wilson company bid was the only sale offer received by the council.

The Bridge Committee held several meetings with representative of the Hamburg Construction Co. of St. Louis which had indicated it was interested in developing the bridge into a multi-million dollar hotel, restaurant, and marina complex. The company, however, did not submit a firm bid. Several Madison officials speculated the Hamburg company ran into financing problems for the development plan.

The Wilson company plans to dismantle the bridge and sell the steel.

When asked how much steel he expects to salvage, Wilson said, "I don't care to comment on that at this time."

Wilson said his firm would begin dismantling work as soon as he received all the necessary permits.

"Our engineers, George Snyder and Associates of Jackson, Mich., will be here within a week to check the bridge again. If everything goes alright, we should start dismantling the bridge within a couple of weeks."

Wilson Sr. is a native of Granite City and graduated from Granite City High School in 1937. He is the son of the late A. M. Wilson who formerly was superintendent of the Granite City Elementary School District and principal at Emerson and Webster elementary schools. Wilson Jr. lives at 207 Briarwood Drive and is in the roofing and siding business.

Former Treasurer McGee dies at 75

Dan W. McGee, 75, formerly of 527 (rear) Jefferson Ave., Venice, a lifelong resident of Venice and former Madison County treasurer, died at 6:45 p.m. Monday at the Anna Henry Nursing Home, Edwardsville.

Mr. McGee also was a former superintendent of streets for the city of Venice. He served a four-year term as county treasurer, 1958-62. He retired in the 1960s as an insurance broker.

A member of St. Mark's Catholic Church, he also belonged to the Tri-Cities Knights of Columbus Council and the Holy Name Society of the church.

Venice organizations in which he was active include the Venice Crippled Children's Organization, Senior Citizens, Democratic Club and Lions Club.

Mr. McGee was the first person elected as Madison County treasurer who invested county operating funds.

Honor Venice team Sunday

Venice Red Devil basketball fans will gather at 1:30 p.m. Sunday at the intersection of Ill. Route 203 and Bend Road to give the state tournament Venice team a warm "welcome home" reception, followed with a parade back to the high school gymnasium.

The Red Devils are expected to arrive at the gathering point at about 2 p.m. Sunday.

Robert Vickers, school district superintendent, said the parade will follow Route 203 through Eagle Park Acres; back to Route 203, next to Third Street and McCambridge Avenue; turn left on Third Street to Madison Avenue; and turn left on Madison to Market Street and into North Venice.

In North Venice, the parade contingent will then follow Market to Weaver Street and Klein Street; and go from Klein to Broadway at the Venice City Hall and down Broadway to turn left onto Second Street.

From there, it will progress to Kern Street and then to Fourth Street before turning onto Lincoln Avenue to assemble at the Venice High School gymnasium, where Coach Richard Essington will address the fans.

Those who also will speak at the reception include: William M. Ebersole, mayor of Venice; Lewis Sabin, Venice High School principal; Supt. Vickers, and Jack Tolliver, Venice School Board president.

The timing of the team's return results from the fact that the state tournament at Champaign will be played Friday afternoon and evening and also Saturday afternoon and evening.

If the Venice team wins its early Friday afternoon contest,

The game net was claimed by Jeff Corrie for Venice as his Red Devils came out on top of a nerve-racking battle against the Carmi Bulldogs 59-58 in triple overtime at the Lance Gymnasium of Eastern Illinois University, Charleston, Tuesday night. Overpass best at 19th?

By HARRY BARNES
Press-Record Staff Writer

Granite City at last has a "foot in the door" in a long-standing plan to build a grade separation between downtown Granite City and West Granite City, but much remains to be done before the project can be brought to the construction stage.

This was what a delegation of property owners was told in an informational meeting Monday night. Many voiced the belief that 19th Street would be the best location for the proposed overpass.

More than 75 residents, city officials and representatives of other area taxing bodies voiced suggestions as to where they believed the grade separation—in all probability an overpass—should be located to the best advantage of all who would use the span.

None of the comments was official and no record of the remarks was made, but Aaron Piereson, vice president of M.W. Inc., St. Louis planning engineers retained by Granite City to prepare a location study for selecting an overpass site, said further meetings will be held, including a public hearing which will be part of the official procedure.

The informal discussion Monday night in the Prather Junior High School cafeteria favored 19th Street as the Campaign signs glowing but are they legal?

Campaign signs in the Granite City April 1 city election are cluttering yards (and a few trees) in the Belleme subdivision, although a 1953 subdivision restriction prohibits the erection of signs of any kind, a longtime resident of the area said, this week.

V. A. Harolan, 3220 Davis Ave., said he had conferred with Mayor Paul Schuler to report the appearance of numerous campaign signs in what Harolan describes as a violation of terms of an agreement with Belleme Homes, Inc., banning such activity.

Harolan said he was assured by the mayor that he will determine what can be done about the matter. "He said he would do everything he could to solve the problem," Harolan said.

Harolan, former chairman of the now-inactive Belleme Civic and Improvement Association, said the signs — some of them large enough to require two stakes to support them — mostly proclaim the candidacies of Lionel Portell and Mac Wardell. The two are opposing one another for the post of city street superintendent in the April 1 city election.

There is a scattering of signs pronouncing the candidacy of Glen Sprinkle for the post of alderman, Harolan said. The subdivision is located in the Fourth Ward, where incumbent Alderman Claude Green is not a candidate for re-election.

Harolan said the signs are more numerous on St. Clair Avenue and Myrtle Avenue, but that some signs can be found throughout much of the subdivision area.

"Everyone has an investment in his residential property and should keep it up rather than give the neighborhood a carnival appearance," Harolan said. "This (Belleme) has been a clean subdivision and we should stick with it to protect our investment."

Harolan said it is his opinion that politicians are not helping themselves when their activities represent a violation of the rules and laws they are sworn to uphold.

"The only way anyone is going to win my vote and trust is for him to show that he himself is a law-abiding citizen," he said.

"After what we have gone through during the past few years, the politicians need to improve their image," Harolan concluded.

New sewer break

A new sanitary sewer break in the Nameoki area developed this week on Jill Avenue between Aubrey and Wayne avenues and could be severe enough to threaten operation of a nearby lift station.

Lionel Portell, city street superintendent, said the break is located at the site of a previously repaired break. The earlier break at the point was among 35 sewer breakdowns occurring after the 1973 spring floods.

Portell said the new problems at the Jill Avenue site appear serious enough that if the line collapses completely at that point it could affect operation of the St. Clair Avenue lift station.

Two manholes are located at the site of the new sewer break. Two eight-inch sanitary sewer lines converge at that point and sewage is carried from there to the lift station through a 15-inch line.

If a break at the Jill Avenue site were to become severe enough to impair full operation of the lift station, sewage could back up into basements and plumbing facilities through a wide area, Portell said.

The new break brings to 16 the total number of sanitary sewer breaks still unrepaired in the Nameoki area. The city spent $1.6 million during the 1973-74 fiscal year for sewer break repairs, but still had 15 unrepaired breaks when it was forced to cancel a contract with an East St. Louis construction company because of a shortage of funds.

The first repair of the Jill Avenue sewer which now appears to have broken again, cost $52,000. Two other breaks in the same area also were repaired nearly a year ago. These included a break on Jill Avenue between Wayne and Roger, repaired at a cost of $142,415, and on Jill Avenue at Roger, repaired at a cost of $84,413.

Nameoki drainage plan ok'd Racing board reversed

A small 100-yard-long drainage ditch which is expected to improve drainage in the Stallings and Revelle Lane areas near Routes 111 and 162 and in the Quiet Valley and Breune Meadows subdivisions in Pontoon Beach, was approved by the Nameoki Town Board of Auditors and Town Board of Health Monday night.

Auditor W. Lee Adams told the Nameoki Board that he has been studying drainage problems throughout the Pontoon Beach and Stallings area and has concluded that all water now is flowing directly to an old levee behind the Nameoki Town Hall at 4250 Highway 162.

By removing the levee and cutting a small spill drainage ditch to an existing ditch, the water can be drained eventually into Elm Slough and drainage throughout the area should be improved, Adams said.

The board studied aerial photos of the area, including areas of standing water. Supervisor Louis Whitsell said he had studied Adams' plans, and commented, "This should eliminate most of the drainage problems in these areas, which, believe me, are worse than Doherty Slough."

Whitsell explained the township has been using employees hired under the manpower grant program to clean and widen numerous ditches and channels by hand and to assist the water flowing from Pontoon Beach to the south.

"The water is flowing very well now, but it stops behind the town hall. There it meets another channel and the water builds up," the supervisor commented.

Adams said he has discussed the cost of the work with several contractors and the lowest price quoted to him was $948 from Kamadulski Excavating and Grading, 4336 Highway 162.

The Town Board accepted the price and at a meeting of the Town Board of Health, immediately following the regular meeting, the final approval was given to sign a contract for the work.

Whitsell noted that Julius Sobczak, 4290 Highway 162, across whose property the ditch will be dug, has agreed to give the township a free easement for the work.

The Illinois Racing Board's refusal to grant licenses to the concessionaires at Cahokia Downs Race Track in St. Clair County was reversed by a Madison County Circuit Court decision Tuesday, but the concessionaires — Sportservice, Inc. and Sports Parking, Inc. — ran into new problems immediately.

As the decision of Circuit Judge John Gitchoff was handed down in Edwardsville, it was announced in Springfield that the Illinois Liquor Control Commission has ordered the revocation of liquor licenses held by the concessionaires.

Problems for the concessionaires grow out of the California conviction of their parent corporation, Emprise, on federal racketeering charges.

Check from Indiana burglary cashed

A $126.43 check, believed one of several taken in a burglary in Chrisney, Ind., on Jan. 31, was cashed at Schnuck's Market, 3801 Nameoki Road, police were advised at 2 p.m. Tuesday by Dean Burrus, co-manager of the store.

Issued by a county farm bureau association through the Chrisney (Ind.) State Bank, the check was made payable to an individual and signed by a second person. Check protection equipment was stolen in the same burglary, police noted.

Judge Gitchoff reversed the Racing Board's action on grounds that the board does not have the authority to license concessionaires. Board Attorney Mrs. Jewel Klein said the board will ask Atty. Gen. William J. Scott to appeal the circuit court ruling.

Alton Attorney Jack Roach, representing the concessionaires, said a rehearing will be sought on the order revoking the liquor licenses and that if the revocation stands the matter will be taken to court.

Judge Gitchoff held that the acts giving the racing board authority to license those who conduct racing meets or operate race tracks, does not give the board authority to license the tracks' concessionaires.

Service main street dept. function, Kiwanians told

The main function of the Granite City Street Department is service, Lionell Portell, superintendent of streets, told the Breakfast Kiwanis Club at its weekly gathering held in Charlie's Restaurant.

Portell said that the street department tries to maintain all streets and sidewalks, along with tree trimming and sewer repairs.

Portell told the Kiwanis members the high water table is the major problem contributing to sewer breaks in the city over the last year and a half.

The Street Department budget has remained at about $400,000 and has not changed much the past couple of years, which has caused problems due to rising cost of materials and wages, according to Portell.

Kiwanis President Norman Kinder announced that the club's annual "Hole-In-One" tournament will be co-chaired by E. Ray Grisham and Robert Harris. The tournament will be held Saturday and Sunday, July 19 and 20, at the Arlington Golf Club.

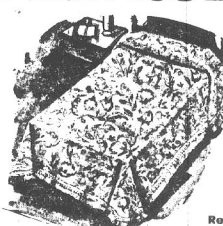

Carl Ranft, general manager and secretary of the Tri-City Regional Port District, will speak on the economic impact that the Port Authority will have on the area at the club's meeting Thursday.

Ask IRS

Q. Are utility taxes deductible?

A. Utility taxes imposed under state or local law are not deductible if the rate differs from that of the general sales tax in your area.

Q. I bought a new car recently for personal use which developed so many mechanical problems that I had to get rid of it. I traded it in for less than what I paid. Is this loss deductible?

A. No. A loss from the sale or exchange of personal property is not a deductible loss, unless it results from casualty or theft. However, don't forget that your state or local sales tax on the purchase of the new car or the part of the tax you paid that is equal to the general sales tax is deductible from your Federal income tax.

Q. Don't I have to show exact amounts to the penny of deductible income, etc., on my tax return?

A. No. Taxpayers may round off such amounts to the whole dollar. This means that you may eliminate any amount less than 50 cents and increase any amount from 50 to 99 cents to the next dollar.

Q. How can I determine whether to use Form 1040 or 1040A to figure my tax?

A. Generally, the Short Form 1040A is used by a person who does not itemize his deductions and whose gross income consists only of wages, salary, tips, and dividend income or interest income of $400 or less.

But taxpayers who have other types of income, gains or losses from sales or exchanges of capital assets, investment tax credit, sick pay exclusion, etc., should use Form 1040 and the appropriate schedules to determine their tax. The instructions for each form explain in greater detail what is appropriate for you to use.

Burglars set a fire early Wednesday that gutted Riedel's Restaurant on Troy Road, Edwardsville. Liquor was stolen and an empty gasoline can was found near an open door. The blaze was set at several locations in the building. There had been break-ins Feb. 24 and in early March at the Bonanza restaurant in Collinsville, the Palms Northgate restaurant in Collinsville and the Bonanza restaurant in Collinsville. Chief March 1, Safes were the target in each case, and at Riedel's it is believed there was an unsuccessful effort to open the safe.

location of the proposed overpass, but Niedringhaus Avenue and 20th Street also were mentioned.

The group that public input is required in all major projects of public works and that informational meetings are held to hear suggestions from the property owners and, at the same time, acquaint the public with the full nature of the project.

In response to a question as to whether the grade separation would be built as an overpass or as an underpass, Pierson and Howard Dillon, civil engineer of the M.W. firm, explained that the question could not yet be answered pending engineering studies.

They said engineering factors will best answer that question, but that in all likelihood an overpass will be built because of the problems caused in that area by high underground water levels that "at first sight" would rule out construction of an underpass.

Pierson and Dillon outlined the area in which the overpass project is proposed on large maps and aerial photographs. Barry Loman, vice-president of the Granite City Park Board, acted as emcee during the one-hour meeting.

Most persons speaking on location probabilities suggested 19th Street as the most feasible location because of its easier access to other parts of the immediate area and the frequent users of the overpass.

As the session opened, Louis Coleman asked if "the purpose of this overpass is for the convenience of people of West Granite City, or is it for the convenience of the tourists."

Pierson replied that the overpass will be a convenience for all traffic regardless of where it originates.

"You'll have everything you have now (other streets in the district crossing the railroad tracks) in addition to the new overpass that will go over the tracks," Pierson said.

Walter Norin, alderman of the Fifth Ward, said he favors 19th Street as the best location, "because it is in the center of both wards." He said 19th Street is best located to tie in with FA Route 151.

After one area resident suggested a referendum vote on where the overpass should be located, Alderman Coleman Green of the Fourth Ward told the meeting:

"This is a long, drawn-out project which we at last have a foot in the door to get federal financing for construction. It seems to me that it would be ideal to put this overpass on 19th Street because of its direct access to Route 151. A 19th Street location would provide easy access to all persons in the West Granite City area."

Dave Partney, however, asked the engineers if they had "taken a look at the possibility of 25th Street." Partney said a 25th Street location would provide a better connecting link since it would be close to the downtown area and at the same time could tie in with a proposed access road to the Nameki shopping area.

Dillon told the meeting that the engineers expect the final choice of the site to lie between three streets that now cross the railroad tracks. These, he said, are Niedringhaus, 19th Street and 20th Street.

Norin remarked that a 20th Street location would present added problems so far as cost is concerned because acquisition of right-of-way would involve the Granite City School administration offices, a large lumber yard and other major businesses along 20th Street.

Pierson said the information obtained in such meetings will be considered in compiling engineering data. All factors must be included in the site selection, including cost, convenience to area residents, traffic outlets in the downtown area, and connecting outlets in the downtown area and at Route 151.

Also favoring 19th Street as the best location was State Rep. Horace Calvo of Granite City who noted that many problems would be encountered on Niedringhaus Avenue, including American Steel Foundries.

Pierson said dates for future meetings will be announced later.

'Updating' Madison approved

The Madison City Council Tuesday night authorized Mayor Sasyk and the council's Finance Committee to enter into agreement with the "Update" firm of Greenville, Ill., for a remodeling and updating study of the city's downtown area.

Mayor Sasyk said, "We had about 95 merchants at a meeting Friday at the Firemen's Hall in addition to about 40 other people and acceptance for renovating the downtown area ran an enthusiastic 95 per cent in favor."

"We have several business that are ready to start right now. I want our Finance Committee to meet with the firm and determine just how much time they will spend on our area, what drawings and plans they will make and at what cost."

"I think we should do something in three areas. First is the downtown area where we should decide on a theme, begin work as soon as possible."

"In talking with our Community Development Commission, we have considered cutting off one block to build a mall-type area. On Saturdays and Sundays this could provide special areas to lease to groups for open outdoor sales in nice weather."

From update to look over the area where the OATH, Inc., building is and I would like to see the complex built to help handicapped children," the mayor said.

Recently made a trip with Milton Morris to an area outside of Chicago where youngsters with various handicaps were making a print shop, a bank and a gift shop, and it was very impressive. It was all done with private funding. If we could do something like this for our children here, I think it will be great."

The update firm will move into Madison and set up temporary offices where they will meet with individual merchants on ways to remodel and develop new business. The firm also solicits ideas from the shoppers and general public to determine what the public is interested in having.

At the Friday merchants meeting a slide presentation was given which demonstrated the several improvements that could be made at a relative low cost.

The cost to the merchants for the firm's help in designing and making recommendations for improvements is based on $8 a foot, measuring the front of the store with a 25-foot maximum change.

The estimated cost to the city for the firm's services will be approximately $14,000.

"This program will be a real step forward in revitalizing our town and attracting more people and business to Madison," Sasyk said.

DeMolay Week begins Sunday

James Stuart Chapter, Order of DeMolay, will join more than 2,400 other chapters in the observance of International DeMolay Week, March 16 through March 23.

David M. Epping, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Epping and master counselor of the local James Stuart Chapter, said that DeMolay week 1975 commemorates the 56th anniversary of the founding of the organization, whose goals are individual leadership training and character development, while helping better the community.

The local chapter was the first one east of the Mississippi River and was organized as a Granite City chapter in 1921 by the Royal Arch Masons, Granite City Chapter 221 which still is the sponsoring body.

The chapter's name was changed to James Stuart Chapter on Jan. 1, 1968, in honor of the chapter advisor, "Uncle Jimmy" Stuart, who was chapter advisor for some 33 years until his sudden death in 1965.

During the week of special anniversary activities, the chapter's program of events will include:

Sunday, March 16—Attend the St. Louis Spirit-Memphis Sounds basketball game at the Arena. (DeMolays to leave from Reese-Belleme at 12:30)

Monday, March 17—Basketball or gym night at Madison Junior High, 7:30 p.m.

Tuesday, March 18—Regular meeting, election of officers, voting on petitions for March 19 or April 1 class. Annual Legion of Honor dinner observance, Elks Lodge, Belleville, for active and honorary Legion of Honor recipients.

Wednesday, March 19—District meeting Masonic Temple, Collinsville, hosted by A. D. Manners Chapter.

Thursday, March 20—DeMolay Brass Band to entertain the children at Shriners Hospital, St. Louis.

Sunday, March 23—Group church attendance DeMolays and their families at Holy Trinity Bulgarian Eastern Orthodox Church, 1300 Grand Ave. Madison DeMolays are to assemble at the church at 9:45 a.m. for the 10 a.m. service.

More manpower funds granted

Nelson Hagnauer, chairman of the Madison County Board, and George Hughey, chairman of the Bond County Board, announced this week that the Office of Manpower Development, serving Madison and Bond Counties through the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, has received additional funding for its Title I and Vocational Education Programs amounting to $225,000 and $17,150 respectively. This increases the total Title I fiscal year 1975 funding level for the two-county area to $1,660,946.

The additional funding will provide training and work experience for unemployed, underemployed, and disadvantaged persons living in Madison and Bond Counties. The Title I training programs will be increased by 116 slots and the work experience programs by 490 slots. Anyone interested in training and/or employment through the Office of Manpower Development may contact their local Illinois State Employment Service office and request to fill out a Manpower Development application.

Devils join 'elite 8' after dramatic triumph

Atoning for earlier mistakes, Reggie Gardner and the Venice Red Devils turned the sorrow of defeat into the joy of victory in the final second of their super-sectional game at Charleston Tuesday night.

The 59-58 triple-overtime win over Carmi advanced Venice to the eight-team state finals where the Red Devils finished third in 1973.

Venice (28-9) now will meet Morrisonville (25-5) in the opening game at 12:15 p.m. Friday at the University of Illinois in Champaign.

Subsequent quarterfinal pairings tomorrow are Buda Western (29-0) vs. Watseka (23-7), Eldorado (22-4) vs. Chatham-Glenwood (25-5) and Riverdale (26-3) vs. Timothy Christian (25-5).

Winners will advance to the semifinals Saturday, with Venice playing at 12:15 p.m. if it defeats Morrisonville.

The third-place and championship games are set for Saturday evening at Champaign to decide the best Class A team. The class denotes high school enrollments of 750 or less.

In addition to the Venice victory on Gardner's twisting, off-balance 38-foot shot, the other "elite eight" entries won as follows on Tuesday:

Morrisonville 65-59 over Shiloh.

Buda Western 51-46 over Lemont.

Watskeka 65-59 over Normal University High.

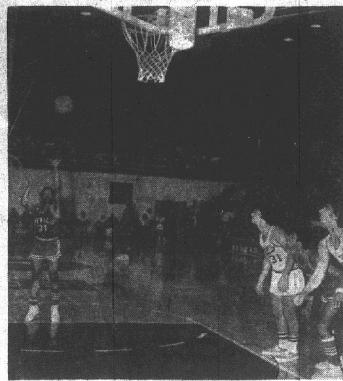

Eldorado 58-63 over Cairo.

Chatham-Glenwood 54-51 in overtime over Quincy Catholic Boys.

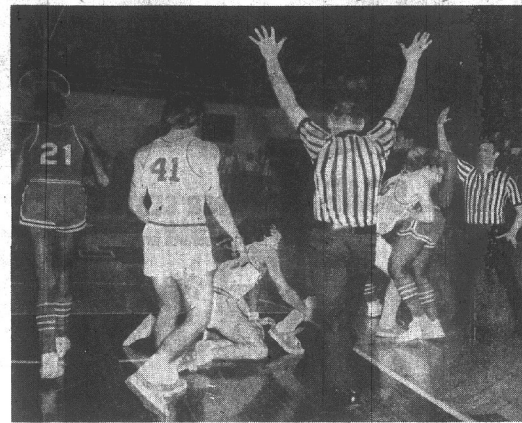

The Red Devils built a 37-34 lead in the third quarter and were ahead 43-38 and 47-41 before Carmi began a rally destined to deadlock the score. Four free throws and Bill Mobley's 16-foot field goal achieved a 47-47 tie with 1:52

THE CLINCHER? Venice fans thought so as James Turner sank the second of his two free throws to move the Red Devils ahead 57-54 with 39 seconds remaining in the third overtime period against Carmi. The Bulldogs quickly made a two-point basket and hit two free throws to move one point ahead with 13 seconds remaining. A long shot at the buzzer by Reggie Gardner gave Venice the 59-58 victory. ACTION WAS RUGGED during Tuesday's second overtime period as several players ended up in a pile on the floor at the buzzer ending the period. At left is Mike Henry (21) and receiving a hard check at the right between the referees is Mike Logan of Venice. (Press-Record Photo)

Riverdale 42-33 over Bushnell-Prairie City.

And Timothy Christian 58-34 over South Bolot.

State rankings show Venice, unbeaten Buda Western and Eldorado favored, in that order.

Although Venice is favored statewide, the Carmi Bulldogs were no-believers for most of Tuesday night's game and tenaciously held their own, gaining 9-9 and 22-22 ties after the first two periods.

The Red Devils built a 37-34 lead in the third quarter and were ahead 43-38 and 47-41 before Carmi began a rally destined to deadlock the score.

Four free throws and Bill Mobley's 16-foot field goal achieved a 47-47 tie with 1:52 left and Randy Downen stole the ball at mid-court for a layup shot that put the Bulldogs in front 49-47 with only 13 seconds remaining.

After a timeout, the Red Devils regrouped and Gardner hit the tying field goal from the free throw circle. Carmi took time with three seconds left but could not score again in regulation time.

The first three-minute overtime saw both teams proceed cautiously. Mark Winter of Carmi missed a 20-foot shot from the right side with 2:34 left.

When a jump ball was called between Jeff Corrie of Venice and Rick Kuykendall, only six seconds remained. Winter grabbed the ball and threw it to Downen, who missed a 20-footer at the buzzer.

In the second overtime, Corrie hit a 10-foot shot from the side and James Turner missed a Venice free throw with 1:12 remaining.

Winter missed a field goal attempt with 14 seconds left but Jeff Stevens sank the rebound to tie the score at 51-51. Corrie drove to the baseline but his shot failed with one second remaining.

Next came the decisive third overtime. Mobley putting Carmi ahead on a free throw but Venice building a 55-52 lead on a driving shot by Turner and two Mike Henry charity tosses.

A 20-footer by Winter made it 55-54 and he then missed a shot from deep in the corner.

When Mobley fouled out with 39 seconds to go, Turner hit two vital free throws for Venice, building the lead to 57-54. Winter missed but Downen rebounded and scored a two-point shot with 25 seconds left.

Venice lost the ball and Kuykendall walked to the free throw line on a Gardner foul with 13 seconds remaining. He sank both and Carmi suddenly was in the lead 58-57.

A double-dribble was called against Gardner at mid-court as the clock showed ten seconds. On a foul by James Crowder, Carmi's Tim Barbre missed a free throw and then a second attempt.

When the ball came off the rim, only six seconds remained but Henry gathered in the rebound and rifled a pass to Gardner, who earned honors as hero of the game by drilling his long, desperation shot as the buzzer sounded.

Gardner finished with 12 points, while Henry totaled 24. Corrie 16 and Turner, seven. The Bulldogs were led by Downen's 19 and Winter's 16.

The Red Devils meshed 26 of 56 field goal attempts and were on target seven of 13 times at the free throw line. Carmi hit 23 of 56 and 12 of 19.

Venice committed 16 fouls to Carmi's 13 but the Bulldogs made the most turnovers, 19-18. Each team engineered six steals.

The attendance of 5,000 included about 1,000 Venice area fans, who saw that a difficult game was in prospect when Carmi gained a 5-1 lead.

The Bulldogs also moved ahead 24-22 in the third period, but Venice led most of the way after the first quarter.

Some spectators felt Venice used stalling tactics but it was Coach Richard Essington's successful strategy to attempt to spread out the enemy defenders.

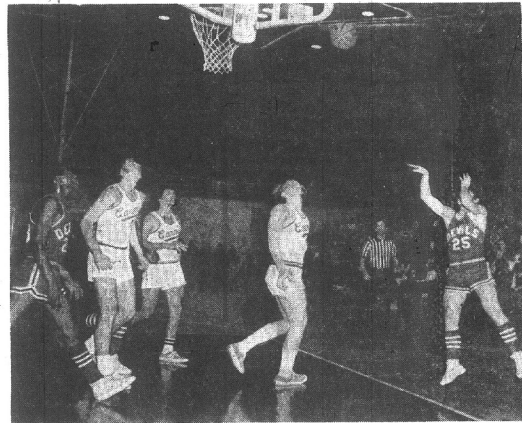

With ten seconds left, the situation had appeared bleak for the local squad.

At that point, the Venice Red Devil mascot, Gloria Johnson, wearing a devil's costume, leaned against the gymnasium wall and began to cry.

Several cheerleaders also turned to tears as Barbre went to the line for his 1-and-1 free throws.

Near hysteria started, as one referee seemed to indicate the Carmi fans too late, leading the Carmi fans to rejoice in their "victory." The other referee immediately motioned that the basket did count, and it was the turn of the Venice fans to cheer wildly.

The two referees then conferred quickly and the decision that the final basket did count was upheld.

TYING THE SCORE while the halftime buzzer was sounding was this outside shot by Jeff Corrie (25) which evened the score at 22-22. At the far left is Venice's Mike Logan. Corrie was the second highest scorer for Venice, with 16 points, and led both teams in steals with five. (Press-Record Photo)

TWO MORE FOR HENRY from close quarters under the basket as Red Devil Mike Henry, in dark uniform with arm up, drops his team's deficit from four points to two with 5:33 left in the second quarter. Henry scored 24 points during the contest against Carmi Tuesday night. Also shown are Venice players Mike Logan (23) and Reggie Gardner, farthest right. (Press-Record Photo)

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD

Although North's defense played well, the Steeler offense could not get off the ground and the issue was decided early.

The Red Birds led 18-4, 41-23 and 57-35 at the quarters and outscored North 23-14 in the final period.

The Steeler first-quarter pointmaking was hampered by seven turnovers and five consecutive missed field goals before Darrell Page put three straight layups into the net.

Gene Logas, then added a basket but Alton hit on nine of 17 field shots in the quarter, outbounding North 11-5.

Page added four more points in the second period, but outside shots from Alton's Justin Scheiter, Maurice Williams and Ken Ramsey, combined with North's eight turnovers, enabled the Redbirds to stretch their margin considerably.

Williams had a total of 26 points in the game and Ramsey 30 for the victors.

North again got off to a slow start in the third period missing the first five field goal attempts before Page connected with three baskets and Larry Jones broke through the middle lane barricade for two more points. Gene Logas and Greg Gauen added two points each in that period.

Alton's Scheiter, a 6-3 senior, pulled down 12 of his team's 14 rebounds in the final quarter. The Red Birds hit 52 per cent from the field, scoring on 10 of 19 shots in the fourth period. North was only able to make good five of 20 field attempts in the quarter.

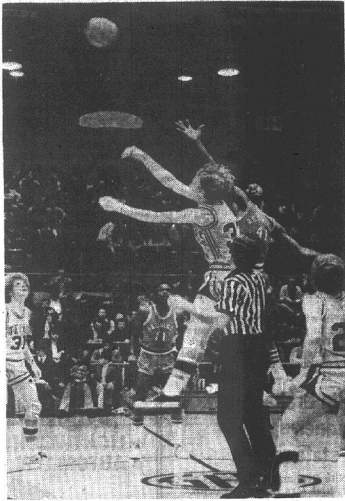

Overall, North shot 35 per cent from the field, 21 of 59, and Alton 51 per cent, 35 of 68, a margin too much for the Granite Cityans to overcome. Alton hit 10 of 16 foul shots while North made seven of 15 charity tosses.

The Redbirds committed the most fouls, 19-17, and North was guilty of the most turnovers, 22-20. Alton decisively controlled the boards, outrebounding North 40-18.

Steele Tom Schocker, who made a last-second basket late week to give North a 49-48 regional championship win over Collinsville, saw action in both the second and fourth quarters of play Tuesday, but the 6-5 junior was held to one field goal in five attempts.

Page headed North's offense with 19 points. Gauen tallied eight, Mike Waldo six, Logas five, Rick Sparlock four, James Woodworth three and Jones, two.

HEARTBREAKING RESULT was North High School lose out in a sectional semifinal game to Alton 80-49 Tuesday, but there was no lack of effort by the Steelers. The Redbirds' fast break offense proved unstoppable. Steele inside Greg Gauen (31), Larry Jones (33) in mid-air and Darryl Page (23).

Scarborough likely to start as leftfielder for Cougars

Jack Scarborough of Granite City will be among the baseball Cougars departing for Florida training Monday, March 17.

The 1975 Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville baseball team is loaded with pitching, the skill that experts in the field consider the most important to a team's success or failure.

The Cougars baseballers of Coach Roy E. Lee will have a front line hurling staff of four proven pitchers, a quartet of hurlers who between them posted 20 wins in the Cougars' 25-121 campaign last year.

No. 1 of Lee's Big Four is the 6-6, 235-pound right-handed fireballer, Nick Baltz, whose home is in Amarillo, Tex., but who played his prep baseball at Valmeyer, Ill. He finished with a 6-3 record after drawing the mound ace of every top opponent the Cougars faced last year.

Who will be the No. 2 starter is hard to say now. The Cougars will take off March 17 for their annual spring training trip to Florida during the quarter class

Nita Graham is runner-up in a 5-state region

Nita Graham, 11, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Graham, 3135 Myrtle Ave., earned runner-up honors during the past week at the University of Iowa in an ELKS-sponsored regional "hoop shot" free throw contest after making good 14 of 25 charity tosses.

A sixth grade student at Frohardt School, she advanced to the regional meet to compete against representatives of four other states — Missouri, Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota — after capturing first place last month in state competition at Champaign.

She was attempting to qualify for a national event to be held later this month, but only first-place age group victors advanced past the regional meet.

JACK SCARBOROUGH

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD

Thurs., March 13, 1975 Page 8

with the Cougars battling Arkansas State University at Jonesboro in a doubleheader, March 27.

What makes the trip so tough is that each of the schools the Cougars will face will have already played at least 10 games by the time SIUE arrives on the scene.

SIUE's standout pitching could help the infielders, catchers and outfielders to sharpen their skills for the Cougars' home opener against Aurora College (Ill.) March 29 in a doubleheader at Cougar Field.

The Georgia school and the three Florida teams are all new on the SIUE baseball schedule, as is Aurora.

Most important addition to the Cougars' baseball schedule, and posing the biggest challenge, is Coach

Rich (Itchy) Jones' Southern Illinois University at Carbondale Salukis, perennially a power in the NCAA Division I (large schools) competition. SIUE is the NCAA's Division II category.

The two SIUE teams will square off for the first time in a doubleheader Sunday, April 20, at Cougar Field. The following season, it'll be a twirl at Carbondale. It will be the first men's varsity team meeting between the two schools, although their golfers and wrestlers have met before.

Other new teams on the SIUE schedule are Kentucky Wesleyan, Harris Teachers College and Wright State University of Ohio.

Here is the lineup Coach Lee will lead off with in Florida:

Third base: Pat Leonard of Cahokia. He hit .333 last season. Terry Vartanian, who started at the hot corner most of last season and ended up hitting 340, will be shifted to the outfield and possibly be used in spot assignments at third and second bases.

Pat Spolitz, an outstanding junior from Decatur, has clinched the catching job. His accurate throwing arm and .346 hitting should make him a fixture there until he graduates.

The loss of Pat Peterson and Tom Twellman at shortstop and second base was a severe blow, but Lee believes he has capable replacements in John Urban (Livingston), Dave Schacke (Edwardsville) and Tim Twellman (St. Louis). Stan Roberts of Carlyle will be used as a utility infielder.

In an effort to have his most experienced fielders in his early lineup, Lee will start his own son, Bill, at first base.

In the outfield, the Cougars will start two proven, well-tested veterans in Jack Scarborough (left field, Granite City) and Bob Matzenbacher (center field, Marissa).

An SIUE junior, Scarborough, 20, bats and throws left-handed. He is 5-10 and weighs 160 pounds.

He went to the plate 103 times in the 1974 season and batted a sizzling .311.

In right, Lee will call on one of the best prospects ever to try out for the Cougars, Mike Brown of Trenton, Ill.

Says Lee, "We knew that Scarborough and Matzenbacher can hit the ball for distance. Each has a better than average throwing arm, and both are good fielders. So, it'll be up to Brown, who has the best throwing arm on the squad, to come through at bat and in the field."

If not, Lee indicated, he might use his designated hitter, Stu Trask of Jerseyville, in the outfield.

Trask, who murdered the ball (.330 in 91 at bats), could be used either at first base or in the outfield, Lee said. He added, "Stu attacks the ball like Richie Allen does... like he's mad at the opposing pitcher."

Another standout candidate for the outfield and first base is St. Louis junior Jim Dohr, who has been used at third and first, as catcher and in the outfield. He hit .206 as a sophomore and could gain a regular's berth.

To spell his starting four hurlers, Lee has four promising pitchers who will make the trip south: Larry Johnson, senior, southpaw from Edwardsville, who ran into bad luck last year after a 5-0 record in 1973; another lefthander, the varsity soccer goalkeeper, southpaw Mark Kissewetter, from St. Louis; and two right-handers, junior Larry Moore, Freeburg, and sophomore Sam Pastrovich, Litchfield.

Pastrovich hurled for the varsity (1.26 earned run average and a won-lost 2-1 record) last season.

Revival at Suburban Baptist

Suburban Baptist Church, 2500 St. Clair Ave., will host a series of revival services beginning Sunday through March 22, featuring a guest preacher from DuQuoin, Ill., and a musician from Wood River, formerly of Granite City, according to the Rev. Bob Worley, host pastor.

Sunday will climax a four-week Sunday School attendance program entitled, "Prove Your Love," with a goal of 244 expected to be reached as the first revival services begin.

Revival services will be held at 7:30 each evening with Sunday's services to be at 10:40 a.m. and 7 p.m. Baby-sitting care will be available at every service, Rev. Worley reports.

The Rev. John Somers, 34-year-old pastor of the First Baptist Church of DuQuoin, will speak each night. He received his education at Quachita Baptist University, Arkadelphia, Ark., and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Fort Worth, Tex. He has 15 years experience in the ministry and has led revivals in Tennessee, Texas and Indiana.

A former Granite Cityan,

REV. JOHN SOMERS

Steve Stanford, now music minister at the Whitelaw Avenue Baptist Church, Wood River, will be in charge of the music.

He plays the trombone and will direct the revival choir each night and also presents a youth group known as "Care Company" from his church in a special musical program Saturday evening.

Army night vision device to prolong sight of John Young Yesterday, for the first time in a very long time to an 11-year-old boy, John Allen Young was able to distinguish an object under night-time conditions aided by an instrument developed for the U. S. Army.

John Allen, the son of Granite City Patrolman and Mrs. Albert (Janice) Young, has an incurable eye disease — retina pigmentosa — which has progressively worsened since first diagnosed five years ago.

At present he has only center vision in daylight, even with glasses, and very little sight at all once darkness arrives. Symptoms of the disease are a gradual decline in night and peripheral vision. So far, researchers have been unable to find a cure to avoid total blindness.

John Allen and his father were transported to Washington, D. C., courtesy Ozark Airlines, on Tuesday. Yesterday, the boy was tested at Fort Belvoir Army Base with the bulky, mask-like equipment.

The equipment was developed to permit soldiers to see enemy troop movements at night in Vietnam. Because the device is not produced for civilian use, the Army has agreed to loan the equipment to John Allen.

The loan was arranged by U. S. Rep. Melvin Price (D-East St. Louis), chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, who was contacted by Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk and Dave Clark, both members of the Madison Lions Club. A pocket-size version of the bulky equipment tested by John Allen Wednesday is being developed and hopefully will reach the market next year.

The "glasses" are expected to cost about $7,000 and Madison Lions members already are making plans to sponsor events to help raise money to buy the compact equipment when available.

Enroute to Washington, John Allen was allowed to ride in the cockpit of the Ozark plane, an experience he will never forget. Perhaps even more forgettable, however, was his ability to distinguish a squat Army tank, photographed in the moonlight and reflected on a wall screen in a small room at Fort Belvoir.

Third candidate in Venice race

Eddie Lee Salmonds, 93 Hill St., Eagle Park Acres, filed petitions yesterday as a candidate for School Board member of Venice School District 3.

Salmonds is the third candidate to file in the Venice April 12 school election in which two school board members are to be elected. Fred Rumpf and Willie Johnson, both incumbents, have filed as candidates for reelection. There have been no new filings in the Granite City or Madison elections in the past week. The filing period will end March 21.

WORK ON PRIVATE LOT yesterday afternoon by the Granite City street department. Patching was done on the surface of Smilin' Joe's Liquor Store parking lot, St. Clair Avenue and Nameoki Road. Street Supt. Lionel Portell said, "We have to park our trucks there when working on lift stations, so the trucks can be nearby with tools. He could just run us off if he wanted, and we'd have no place to park. Our trucks are heavy and he asked us to fill the chuckholes where we park. Bill Warfield (father of Portell's April 1 election opponent) was the first street superintendent to do this, and it's been done ever since. If this wasn't an election year, no one would be worrying about it."

MRS. LOIS WEEKS
128 Cynthia Lane

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sullivan Jr. and sons, Teddy and Sean, of Detroit have returned to their home after spending the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sullivan of Chagau Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith of Cotter, Ark., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Howard Robertson of Maryville Road.

John Baker Pidecock of Madisonville, Ky., has returned home after spending the weekend visiting friends in Mitchell. He formerly lived at Mitchell.

VOTER REGISTRATION Registration for the next election will be held at Dickerson's Cleaners next to the Mitchell Branch Post Office Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Brownie Troop 906 and the leader, Mrs. Margo Clements, were entertained with a party at Tony's Restaurant Tuesday after school. Arthur Menendez, Mitchell School principal, was the guest speaker.

FIRE EARLY TODAY at 2009a Missouri Ave. was fought by Granite City firemen. The blaze was reported at 2:45 a.m. in the apartment of George Williams after an electrical short-circuit occurred in his stereo set. The fire caused an estimated $5,000 damage, and three fire trucks and crews were at the scene for an hour and 15 minutes. The building is owned by Corrie Browning.

Car skids, hits pole, two hurt

An auto operated by Gary Withers, 19, of 2850 Madison Ave., skidded on wet pavement and struck a telephone pole at 11 p.m. Tuesday in the 1700 block of Madison Avenue.

William O. Hasty Jr., 19, of 1601 Clark Ave., a passenger, sustained abrasions to the right knee and nose and was admitted at St. Elizabeth Hospital. The driver also reportedly was injured.

Burglar uses bolt cutter at GC firm

Bolt cutters were used to remove a lock on the parts room door inside Granite City Dodge, 1911 Madison Ave., in a burglary reported Monday. An inventory of missing items is being compiled. A window on the south side of the building was broken to gain entry, the police report stated.

Cancel lease for lodge

The lease for the Pere Marquette State Park Lodge, held by concessionaire James Depper of Grafton, will be cancelled as of Saturday and the state will seek new bids for operation of the lodge. Union employees at the lodge have been on strike since Dec. 28.

The lease cancellation was reported by Anthony Depp, director of the Illinois Department of Conservation, which owns the facility and leases it for a share of the profits.

Dean cited accusations by Illinois Labor Director Kenneth Holland alleging Depper had violated state laws by using contracts in which employees agree not to join a union as a condition of employment, and by purchasing advertisements for new employees without mentioning in them that a strike existed.

Arthur Ritz dies at 64

Arthur Marcus Ritz, 64, of 4436 Nameoki Road, a lifelong resident of the Quad-Cities, was pronounced dead at home by Thomas Scaturro, Madison County deputy coroner, at 1 p.m. Tuesday.

Mr. Ritz was found in bed without signs of life by his wife, Mrs. Betty (Hart) Ritz, when she returned home. There will be an inquiry.

Born in Venice, Mr. Ritz, resided there until 21 years ago when the family moved to Granite City.

He retired two months ago at the GM&O Railroad where he was employed for many years as a machinist.

Other survivors include a son, Arthur L. Ritz, and a daughter, Mrs. Dwight (Marlene) Smith, both of Granite City; two brothers, Frank Ritz of Collinsville and Earl Ritz of Florissant, Mo.; one sister, Mrs. Margaret Diak of St. Louis, and five grandchildren. Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Form county GOP council

The Republican Citizens Council of Madison County was organized at a meeting Monday in Edwardsville. The council's objectives are to work with the Republican Party organization in promoting and stimulating Republican ideas, providing a forum for Republican candidates and providing support and workers for the election of Republican candidates on the local, state and national level; organization leaders said.

The group is open to all Madison County residents believing in the principles of the Republican Party and desiring generally to support its candidates and further implement the two-party system in the county.

Officers elected at the meeting included: Frank Flaigen, Edwardsville, president; Sybil Bellas, East Alton, first vice president; Merrill Ottwell, Glen Carbon, second vice president; Mary Ann Sommers, Godfrey, secretary; and Bob Barton, Granite City, treasurer.

The board of directors includes 16 elected directors and eight directors to be appointed by the officers and elected directors. The Republican Party chairman of Madison County, Charles A. O'Neil, will be an ex-officio member of the board of directors.

Directors elected include: Gerald Cohn, Bethalto; Donald Emde, Bethalto; James Hall, Alton; Homer Henke, Moro; Ivy Hittner, Edwardsville; Annie Hoagland, Godfrey; Gladys Lewis, Alton; Sally Raebel, Highland; Walter Schleimer, Edwardsville; George Blatter, Granite City; Mike Reid, Everet Steele, Glen Carbon; Ray Stillwell, Alton; Robert Urban, Troy; Gilbert Watson, Collinsville.

A letter was read at the meeting from the Madison County Republican Central Committee stating that "The Central Committee is pleased to have the new Citizens Council join in the endeavor to promote the Republican effort in Madison County."

One of the first efforts of the committee is to publish a Republican newsletter in Madison County for the purpose of improving party communications and unity, and to stimulate interest in Republican activities.

it will play again in the semifinals Saturday afternoon and then for either first place or third place that night.

If the Red Devils are eliminated in their quarterfinal game tomorrow, they will remain at Champaign to view the remainder of the tournament.

About 600 Venice fans went to the super-sectional game at Charleston to see the Red Devils win Tuesday night, and about 1,000 tickets were made available to Venice and Madison area fans yesterday for Friday's state quarterfinal game. That ticket sale ended early this afternoon at the Venice School office.

No Saturday tickets will be sold here; the sale will take place Friday afternoon and evening at a designated area of the Assembly Hall in Champaign, Supt. Vickers reports.

At the time he served as county treasurer, holders of that office could not succeed themselves in consecutive terms. He considered running for the office again in 1986 but decided against it.

His wife, Mrs. Mabel McGee, died in August 1974. His late sister, Miss Catherine McGee, was Venice librarian.

Survivors include two sons, Kenneth McGee of Granite City and Richard McGee of Venice; one daughter, Ronald (Catherine) Farnback of Venice; four grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services were held today at St. Mark's Church, Venice, with burial at Calvary Cemetery. An obituary notice is given elsewhere in this issue.

Priest to review Holy Land trip

The Rev. Neal Dee, associate pastor at St. Boniface Catholic Church, Edwardsville, will be the guest speaker Monday evening at the Sacred Heart Altar Society's March meeting.

His program will include a slide presentation covering areas in Nazareth, Jerusalem and Bethlehem, which he visited on a tour of the Holy Land.

Christmas cards mailed by the Rev. Dee to parishioners and friends last year showed the Edwardsville priest saying Mass in Bethlehem at the Church of the Nativity. The edifice is constructed over the place where Jesus was born, he noted.

A native of Jacksonville, Ill., and a graduate of Routh Parochial High School there, Father Dee received his bachelor of science degree in philosophy and his master's degree in religion from St. Mary of the Lake, Mundelein, Ill.

At the Mundelein school, the Rev. Dee was a classmate of Sacred Heart's associate pastor, Father Daniel A. Flynn. Prior to his assignment at St.

Delay vocational school plan

"Plans for opening the J. B. Johnson Career Development Center (formerly named the Alton Area Vocational School) have been delayed until the fall of 1976, members of the Granite

City Board of Education have been informed.

The Johnson school is to provide vocational education for a large area which includes Granite City, Alton, Bethalto, Wood River, Roxana, Jersey and Greene counties and other areas.

Local officials had expressed concern over a proposed 1975 opening date, saying it would be impossible to integrate the vocational school's program into the Granite City program in such a short time.

In a letter to the local school district, officials were informed that construction of the center is proceeding well, but that problems concerning staffing and enrollment have caused plans for a midyear opening in 1975 to be postponed until the fall of 1976.

The board approved plans for this year's "Acres of Art Show" which is to be held, for the first time, on a Sunday afternoon in connection with a band concert on the front lawn of Granite City High School South.

The event will be held near the end of the school year, but a specific date has been selected. The Granite City High School

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD
Thurs., March 13, 1975 Page 18

North band has been invited to play with plans to alternate each year between the bands of North and South.

The board approved filing a Title Two grant application for continuing the remedial reading pilot program at Grigsby Junior High School. If the program is successful in its second year, the board will be asked to expand the remedial reading program to other junior high schools.

Permission was granted to the vocational education advisory committee to organize two new committees to make suggestions on automotive and off-campus educational programs. Seven other committees are being proposed to deal with specific vocational areas.

Also approved was the filing of the updated one and five-year plans for vocational education. The board gave its approval to a recommendation of the Region One Special Education District Board that the lease for the special education office building at 2801 Madison Ave., be renewed for a three-year period.

The special education office is to move into a proposed Granite City Township building when it is constructed, but plans for that building are proceeding slower than had been anticipated.

Other actions of the Special Education board which were approved by the Granite City Board of Education included having Larry Dew, director of the special education region, send a letter to the Madison County Association for Retarded Citizens, supporting their efforts to establish a center in the Quad-City area. Dew also is to send a letter to C. A. MacMillan, head of Coordinated Youth Services, supporting his efforts to establish programs in the Madison-Venice area and in Ponton Beach.

A proposal to employ a teacher for visually impaired students also received the endorsement of the Granite City board.

The board also gave its approval to:

—Washington School's Parent-Teacher Association to donate gymnasium equipment to that school.

—Parkview School's PTA to present $150 worth of soccer balls, playground balls and other equipment to that school.

—Granite City to use Logan School as a polling place for the April 1 election.

—The Nameki School PTA to use the school May 2 for the annual spring carnival.

—Boy Scout Troop 46 to use Nameki School April 5 for a ham and bean supper.

—The Granite City Jaycees to hold a drug abuse poster contest at the junior high schools.

—Lois Erickson to attend the American Personnel and Guidance Association Conference in New York March 22 to 26.

—The Council of Exceptional Children to use the Granite City High School South cafeteria for a pot luck dinner March 18.

The following trip requests, which will not cost the district, also were approved.

—The Future Homemakers of America Club of GCHS South to trip to Lazy Lee's Resort in Readland Springs, Mo., May 24 and 25.

—The GCHS South Letterman's Club to take a trip to Florida after the close of school this year.

—The Social Studies Club at GCHS North to take a trip to Chicago to visit museums April 18 to 20.

—The Social Studies Club of South to take a trip to Florida March 22 to 27 with historical stops during the trip.

Board members were informed that the district will conduct an institute day March 20. A request to have printed 1,000 programs costing $53 was approved. The funds are to be reimbursed by the office of the superintendent of the educational service region.

Members also were invited to attend a legislative dinner meeting in Springfield March 19 to discuss current issues with state senators and congressmen.

Dramatic downturn in railroad's business volume cited in bankruptcy proposal

By LESTER BELL
Press-Record
Washington Bureau

Rock Island Railroad officials, fearing a total halt if financial help is not forthcoming, have urged the Interstate Commerce Commission to put other railroads in charge of its operations.

At an emergency meeting with the ICC and officials from Western and some Eastern roads, spokesmen for the Rock Island said that the proposed Interstate Commerce Commission action would be a "takeover" of Rock Island management by any single road or consortium of roads.

Their basic argument was that there were "too many built-in conflicts of interest" for outside operation and, further, that none of them was willing "to put up the front money" necessary to keep the Rock Island rolling pending any federal decision to bail it out.

"There is a way," said Thomas Megan, Rock Island vice-president for legal affairs, rejecting the concept of outside management, "and that is you can designate a Rock Island subsidiary."

Megan said this would save the additional expense of paying for outside management.

The ICC is empowered to order other roads to provide local service, but it must provide all incurred costs plus a six per cent management fee.

Later, Megan said the Peoria Terminal is a switching carrier operating between Peoria and Pekin.

During a news conference, Rock Island officials indicated the Rock Island's demise was imminent unless it could get a $30 million operation loan requested of and rejected by the U.S. Railway Association.

The road earlier asked for $9.1 million, which USRA had committed itself to, but later rescinded because it feared the road couldn't repay the loan.

The Rock Island failed at the outset to get a $100 million

USRA loan.

The question of financing the road remains cloudy.

E. Houston Harsha, outside counsel for the road, said it is "possible the Rock Island will close."

Asked if he meant it would literally grind to a halt, Harsha said: "We know we can get it a matter of 'cash flow.'"

The road would be in the position of "writing checks with insufficient funds," he warned.

He noted that the railroad is calling a board meeting.

Justin Collin, a director and member of the executive committee, said the Rock Island would "try to keep alive as long as we have the money."

He and others from the road are to appear at a Senate hearing called by Chairman Vance Harke, D-Ind., to investigate the Rock Island crisis that seemed to explode with surprising suddenness.

Megan, when asked about this, said the Rock Island suffered "a dramatic downturn in our business" in early February.

Discussion among Rock Island officials seemed to pin their hopes on saving off bankruptcy on Congressional action.

They provided figures indicating the impact that bankruptcy would have in Illinois, where the Rock Island has a work force of 5,703, 310 miles of track, 107 daily trains and a $32 million payroll.

The road pays $1.5 million in state taxes, and serves 372 industries employing 36,500 workers in 40 communities.

Rock Island employs 10,500 workers in its mid-America operations, serving 4,879 businesses employing 175,000 workers for a $2.5 billion payroll. It is regarded as having considerable direct and indirect impact on the economies of Illinois, Missouri and the St. Louis metropolitan area.

"I think we ought to act now,"

Aside from the figures given, officials point out that the road's bankruptcy would mean an immense loss of both state and federal taxes.

Sen. Charles J. Percy, R-Ill., later said the best way to keep the Rock Island running is a merger with the Union Pacific and he will urge Congress to give quick approval to such a bill.

Percy cited it as the best of four alternatives to the crisis. He said that if the Rock Island goes bankrupt, "the ripple effect could be terrible," and this possibility must be averted.

Percy speculated that the Rock Island can "only last two or three weeks" longer unless rescued.

Sen. James B. Pearson of Kansas, ranking Republican on the Senate Commerce Committee, supports the merger bill, S. 917, Percy said, and they are to confer on plans to get it moving.

"I think we ought to act now,"

Percy said, noting that the Senate has "gotten railroad legislation through in 24 hours" when necessary.

Discarding the three other alternatives, Percy said he does not believe the Rock Island can get the economic assistance the U.S. Railway Association needs to grant a loan; that the road can file for bankruptcy and get access to $19 million in federal funds to keep going awhile longer; or that the Interstate Commerce Commission can order another road to operate the Rock Island.

Percy said he has no faith in any of the three and he prefers merger.

As for emergency loans to continue Rock Island operations, Percy said, "A temporary bailout doesn't solve the problem; it (the road) just gets deeper."

The Rock Island Railroad is not filing for bankruptcy, Vice President Christopher Knapp said after the latest board meeting.

"The board found that it is not necessary to file for bankruptcy under Section 77 of the Bankruptcy Act for Railroads that permits them to go bankrupt and still operate," Knapp said in an interview.

The board will meet again on March 17, he said.

Knapp said the railroad has asked the USRA to reconsider its request for a $100 million loan, which would be used chiefly to rebuild the roadbed and rework covered hoppers for the grain trade.

The $100 million, Rock Island continues to assure USRA, would put the road in a profit-making position to pay off the loan.

USRA has agreed to reconsider the loan application in the light of recent legislation that probably can be interpreted to help the road, Knapp said.

Citing Senate hearings, he commented, "They'll not be holding hearings on a dead railroad." He said the Rock Island has a reprieve at least until March 17.

It avoided an immediate "cash flow crunch" when it got two checks not included in its cash forecast to meet payments due.

Knapp said one check for interest payments from Canadian railroads and the other from Trailer-Train Corp., "piggy-back" firm, came in the mail, thus staving off a shut-down until at least March 17.

"The next sizable payment is on March 17," he said. "We can't pinpoint predictions on cash income, and this could be another crunch."

He concluded that when a road's "outgo exceeds income, the only recourse is to stop running the railroad."

Four incumbent aldermen of the Granite City Council were endorsed last week as favored by labor for re-election in the April 1 city election.

The endorsements were voted by the Tri-City Trades and Labor Council acting on a report submitted by the trades council's special screening committee. The trades council delegates concurred in all recommendations of the committee report.

In upholding the report, the trades council also endorsed a candidate new to the political field for alderman in another ward, but made no endorsements in the city's two other wards — the second and the fifth.

Also endorsed as labor's choice for city street superintendent was Mac Warfield, son of former Street Superintendent William Warfield. Mac Warfield is running against incumbent Street Superintendent Lionel Portell in his bid for re-election.

The council also endorsed Jack Hood as candidate for one Granite City Park District post which is subject to election April 15. Hood was favored over a field of five candidates in the park board election, although all of the candidates, as was the case in the Granite City aldermanic election, did not appear for interviews by the screening committee.

In the First Ward, the trades council gave its endorsement to Everett Morlen, incumbent, who was favored over James Stuart, himself an active labor man. Stuart, however, was given a "favorable mention" in the council action. Morlen, Stuart and Charles R. Douglas are candidates for the Ward One Aldermanic post.

No endorsement was voted in the Second Ward where incumbent Alderman Sam Whitner is opposed by M. E. "Red" Hill, but the council voted "favorable mention" for Hill. Hill was the only one of the two candidates interviewed.

Clyde Boyd, incumbent alderman of the Third Ward who is running unopposed, was given the council endorsement.

In the Fourth Ward, Glen Sprangle was endorsed as the aldermanic candidate. Sprangle is opposed by Warren

Endorsements by Trades Council

Four incumbent aldermen of the Granite City Council were endorsed last week as favored by labor for re-election in the April 1 city election.

The trades council also did not vote an endorsement in the Fifth Ward where Incumbent Alderman Walter Nunn is unopposed for re-election. In the Sixth Ward, Incumbent Gerald Farmlay was given an endorsement although he also is unopposed for re-election.

The endorsement in the Seventh Ward where four candidates are seeking the one aldermanic post — went to Incumbent Emergent Davies, with a favorable mention given to Frank Vesce. The other two candidates in the Seventh Ward election are Donald Farney Jr., and Daniel Sparks.

Five candidates who are seeking election to the one park commissioner office in the April 15 park election are Hood, Richard Reinhardt, Nicholas J. Ryan, George Sykes and Ronald Dillard.

Edwin F. Reiske, president of the trades council and chairman of the screening committee, said that interviews by the screening committee will be taken from candidates for city and village offices subject to election in Madison, Venice and Pontoon Beach on April 15, and of Venice Park commissioner candidates for one park post in an election April 1.

Reiske said candidates wishing to appear before the screening committee for endorsement action may contact him at the trades council office at 877-4330.

EVANGELIST David Hindman, 22, a former resident, who will lead an 11-night 'Youth Revival' at the Madison Church of God, 1536 Fourth St., Madison. The service will commence at 7:30.

Former resident to lead revival

David Hindman, a former Granite City resident, will lead a "Youth Revival" starting Sunday evening at the Church of God, 1536 Fourth St., Madison. The service will commence at 7:30.

The youthful preacher has been working extensively for the past few years in the distressed areas of Chicago. His efforts there mostly involve helping young people with drug abuse and related problems, it was learned.

Hindman has become widely known in evangelistic circles throughout the state and has been called upon to speak about his experiences in many communities.

A 1971 graduate of Granite City High School South, Hindman, 22, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hindman who lived at 2314 Hodges Ave., until recently. His parents now reside in Edwardsville.

The Rev. Dewey Garner, Church of God pastor, said the public is welcome to attend all services at the Madison church.

He issued a special invitation to area youths to come and hear the visiting evangelist.

The revival will continue each evening through Wednesday, March 26. All services will start at 7:30, the Rev. Garner said.

On Saturday, March 22, a special gospel music program is planned, featuring the Messengers from Pekin, Ill.

Whitsell, Bell disagree over ownership of Nameoki trucks

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD Thurs., March 13, 1975 Page 23

Disagreement over the ownership of an old pumper truck and a dump truck used by Nameoki Township developed at the Nameoki Town Board of auditors' meeting Monday night as both Township Supervisor Louis Whitsell and Highway Commissioner Albert Bell claimed ownership for their departments.

At the last board meeting, the auditors had instructed Whitsell to prepare an inventory of all equipment in the town hall and garage which is owned by the township. The report excludes equipment owned by the township's Highway Department, which is a separate entity.

In his inventory list, returned to the board Monday night, Whitsell listed the pumper and dump trucks as owned by the township.

Bell objected, saying the two trucks are owned by the highway department. Whitsell responded the two trucks were purchased with federal revenue sharing funds and the township never turned ownership of the trucks over to the highway department," Whitsell contended.

The Town Board finally intervened, requesting both of officials to contact their attorneys in an effort to have the question of ownership resolved.

The dispute is one of many which have been occurring between the two officials during the past two years. The most recent disagreement, prior to the issue over the trucks, was in regards to the method by which the highway department's bills should be submitted and approved by the board. That issue required several months to resolve.

The township uses both trucks in its environmental cleanup program, which is financed by revenue sharing funds. The dump truck is used for collecting limbs and wood chips and the pumper is used to clean sewers and culverts and to pump water out of flooded areas. The pumper was purchased from the Long Lake Fire Protection District.

The board changed the date of its next meeting from Monday, March 24, to Tuesday, March 25, to coincide with the required date of a public hearing on the highway department's annual budget.

The meeting will open at 7 p.m. with the public hearing, which will be followed by the regular Town Board of Auditors meeting. A special meeting of the Town Board of Health will follow.

The Town Board of Health is to study prices to purchase a used truck, suitable for use with a mosquito spraying unit. The unit formerly used for that purpose was demolished in an accident.

The board members are pricing available used trucks to gather information for that meeting.

The Town Board of Auditors also is expected to consider bids on new office furniture and equipment which will be used to furnish an addition being constructed to the town hall.

Monday night the board authorized Town Clerk Douglas Teetor to advertise for bids on the office equipment and furnishings. He also is to call for bids on preparation of a wall plaque commemorating the completion of the new addition.

The board also discussed a road across from Stallings School which never has been accepted by the Township Highway Department. Bell has maintained the road is too narrow to be a township road but is a private road.

Whitsell contended that about 10 houses have been constructed on the road and the highway department is obligated to maintain the roadway and to provide proper drainage along the road.

Whitsell said the highway commissioners prior to Bell's election maintained the roadway, thus obliging the highway department to continue the maintenance.

The residents of the road have contacted Whitsell, requesting help in repairing the road and in solving drainage problems along it.

The Town Board requested that Bell contact his attorney to determine whether he is obligated to accept the unnamed road as a township road. Whitsell informed the board that the township's general assistance fund has been depleted and that he will sell a $10,000 anticipation warrant for the fund.

The borrowing is required in order to qualify the general assistance program for state assistance. After the anticipation warrant has been sold, the state will reimburse all

March 26 deadline for fire, police applicants

Wednesday, March 26, is the deadline for applications to be submitted by persons wishing to become probationary patrolmen or probationary firemen in Granite City.

Applicants for both departments will be tested Saturday, April 5.

The qualifications for applicants to both departments are the same. The applicant must be 21 to 35 years-of-age; not less than 5 feet, 8 inches in height; weighing 150 pounds or more and being of good physical proportions.

Applicants also must hold a high school or General Equivalency Diploma; must be capable of reading comprehensively and writing understandably the English language; a resident of the city for one year prior to the testing date; and must be able to qualify for a state class "C" chauffeurs license.

The testing for both department will be held April 5 at the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall, 21st Street and Washington Avenue. Fire Department candidates will be tested at 9 a.m. and prospective policemen will take their test at 2:30 p.m. that day.

Application forms for those wishing to take the test are available from the chiefs of the departments.

Restoration Society tour May 4

At a special meeting of the Downtown Neighborhood Restoration Society, at 8 p.m. Friday in the YMCA, members will receive tickets for the May 4 house tour, a society project.

Walter Padgett, president, announced this week that tickets will cost $1.50, if purchased in advance, or $2 on the day of the tour.

Based around the theme — "House Tour and Neighborhood Fair" — this year's project will feature six houses and a church, all located in the Downtown Granite City area. The tour may be taken from 1 p.m. until 6 p.m. May 4, Padgett said.

Special entertainment is being planned to include a large tent erected on the 24th Street Parkway, between Cleveland Boulevard and Delmar Avenue, where craftsmen will demonstrate their varied artistic skills and talents.

An added attraction this year will be a London double-decker bus. The unique fourty-two transportation will enable tour patrons to leave their vehicles at church parking areas and board the bus for the tour, thereby eliminating traffic and parking problems, Padgett explained.

Tickets for the event may be obtained, starting Saturday, by calling 877-5498.

Billiken sports to hinge on level of public attendance

St. Louis University's basketball program will continue for at least another year, it was announced Monday afternoon by Rev. Daniel C. O'Connell, S.J., university president.

Father O'Connell said the Billiken basketball program will have to operate within a balanced budget for the 1975-76 academic year, and that the future of the program beyond that year will depend on its maintaining a balanced budget. The same policy will also be applied to Billiken hockey and soccer programs. He said that although the hockey and soccer programs currently are "much more profitable" than the basketball program, a balanced budget will be required of them as well.

Increased revenues necessary to achieve a balanced budget for basketball will have to come from several sources he said. These include:

An increase to $10 per semester in the athletic fee paid by students. The current fee is $5.

A large increase in ticket sales. There will be an intensive advertising ticket sales program.

"Our hopes for being able to continue Billiken basketball are based in large part on expectation that the public interest in keeping Billiken basketball will be evidenced in

Cougarettes learned teamwork, coach says

Sharon Frey, freshman center from Edwardsville, scored 157 points in 17 games to lead the Cougarettes in scoring in their second season of intercollegiate basketball competition, final statistics show. The Cougarettes, who had a regular season record of 4-8, qualified for the Southern Illinois sectional tournament and, by virtue of an upset victory over Quincy College, were eligible for the state tournament held at Champaign. Overall, the Cougarettes compiled a record of 5-12 in regular season and tournament play.

Gail Brooks, junior center from Mascoutah, scored 111 points for the Cougarettes in 16 games to take second place in the scoring parade. Junior Jan Green, a guard from East Alton, was third in scoring with 91 points in 16 games. She was injured during the season and missed action in five games.

Other scorers for SIUE were

Deb Parashak, junior forward from St. Louis, 79 points in 17 games; Jo Brooker, freshman forward from Glen Carbon, 77 points; Mary Shaffer, senior forward from Sullivan, Mo., 62 points; Cherry Sharp, sophomore forward from Granite City, 46 points.

Also, Jerri Wilson, freshman guard from Godfrey, 45 points; Jayne Bertoglio, freshman forward from Bunker Hill, 44 points; and Jan Olson, sophomore guard from Rockford, four points.

Ina Anderson, coach of the Cougarettes, summed up the season as "one in which we learned to play as a team." She is optimistic over prospects for the 1976 season if SIUE can find one or two tall women to help control the backboards. Only one of the Cougarettes are as tall as six feet, she said.

Grants to fight child abuse

A $300,000 program of grants to combat child abuse was announced Friday by Director Mary Lee Leahy of the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services.

"The grant program has a twofold purpose," Mrs. Leahy said. "We want to involve private agencies and community groups in a cooperative effort with the department to treat and prevent child abuse. We also hope these grants will promote innovative approaches to the child abuse problem which later can be applied on a statewide basis."

Agencies eligible to apply for grants include social service organizations, mental health centers, hospitals, medical centers, police, homemaker groups, battered women's groups, and Anonymous-type self-help groups.

To assure maximum distribution of funds throughout the state, the department has limited grant requests to $50,000 for any one area.

The 77th Illinois General Assembly appropriated $400,000 for child abuse grants in its fiscal 1978 budget.

The department committed $100,000 to help start up the Department of Children and Family Services Project. This is a three-year $1.1 million child abuse demonstration project on Chicago's north side, funded primarily by the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare. Participating in the project with the department are Children's Memorial Hospital and 12 private social welfare agencies.

"With child abuse reports expected to reach 3,200 this fiscal year, new approaches generated through this grant program could be invaluable to us in stemming the tide," Director Leahy said.

"To continue this promising program, the department has requested an additional $400,000 for child abuse grants in its fiscal 1979 budget."

Agencies wishing more information about the grant program may contact the DCFS area office nearest them. Area offices are located in Aurora, Chicago, (4), Decatur, East St. Louis, Joliet, Marion, Moline, Ottawa, Peoria, Quincy, Rockford, Salem, Springfield and Waukegan.

All proposals for the current fiscal year must be submitted to the Department of Children and Family Services by March 28. Grant awards will be announced by April 21.

"The Environmental Protection Agency and the Coast Guard share the responsibility for implementing the Federal Water Pollution Control Act," said Commander James Webb, chief of the Marine Environmental Protection branch in the Second District.

The district has jurisdiction over all navigable waterways in 22 Midwestern states.

"After EPA standards are issued, the Coast Guard must issue regulations governing the design, construction, testing and certification of devices which will meet the requirements. The standards of performance for marine sanitation devices were released by the EPA in June 1972. The Coast Guard regulations were published Jan. 30," Webb said.

The new regulations apply to all vessels, both commercial and recreational. "There is no differentiation between classes," Adm. Bursley said. "The regulations do not require the installation of a marine sanitation device on a vessel is outfitted with toilet facilities, it must comply. Portable devices which can be carried on and off a vessel are not included."

The Jan. 30, 1975, issuance of the Coast Guard regulations triggered effective dates which have been built into the law.

"The effective date for new vessels is now Jan. 30, 1977. For existing vessels, the effective date is Jan. 30, 1980," Cdr. Webb said.

"After these effective dates, a state may not enforce rules and regulations without a special regulation issued by the administrator of the EPA."

"If a state feels that its waters require greater environmental protection than that afforded by the federal standards, it may apply to EPA asking for a regulation completely prohibiting the discharge of sewage from a vessel, treated or untreated, into the state's waters," Webb said.

"If EPA then determines that the discharge of sewage from vessels should be prohibited—and that adequate facilities for the safe and sanitary removal and treatment of sewage are reasonably available—they would issue a regulation prohibiting the discharge of all sewage into the state's waters."

"This regulation could affect all waters in the state, or only those named by the state in its request to the EPA," he added.

"The Coast Guard has 'no-discharge' type devices which were installed before Jan. 30 this year are automatically certified. This certification of existing marine sanitation devices is covered by the Coast Guard regulations."

"An existing flow-through discharge type device may be certified by application to the commandant of the Coast Guard, showing that the device meets the EPA performance standard," Cdr. Webb said.

"The Coast Guard will maintain and make available a list of marine sanitation device models certified by this method."

The EPA regulations contain an incentive provision to encourage the early installation of certified devices on existing vessels.

"If a certified flow-through device is installed before Jan. 30, 1978, it may be used as long as it remains operable. If a device is installed between Jan. 30, 1978 and Jan. 30, 1980, it may be used until Jan. 30, 1985," Webb said.

Persons with questions concerning implementation of the new Coast Guard regulations may write or call Commander Webb, Chief, Marine Environmental Protection Branch, Second Coast Guard District, 1500 Market Street, St. Louis, Mo. 63103. Telephone: (314) 425-5053.

Funds for manpower planning

Funds are available from the State of Illinois for research or demonstration projects by organizations or individuals who are attempting to deal with manpower problems, according to the Office of Research and Projects at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

John Rodman, coordinator of the SIUE Research Office, said the governor of Illinois receives an annual grant from the U.S. Department of Labor under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act to foster special manpower and labor market research and program development.

The funds are administered by the State Advisory Council on Manpower and the Governor's Office of Manpower and Human Development.

To be considered, projects or programs must "enhance the coordination and delivery of employment and training services of state or local governmental agencies; or provide financial assistance for special programs and services designed to meet the needs of rural areas outside major market areas."

Other eligible programs may assist in developing and publishing relevant information regarding economic, industrial and labor market conditions, including but not limited to job requirements, labor supply in various skills, occupational outlook and employment trends in various occupations, and economic and business development and location trends; or carry out special model training and employment programs and related activities including programs for offenders and others with special employment barriers."

Additional information is available from the SIUE Research Office, Room 2202, General Office Building. The deadline for proposals to be received in Springfield is April 15.

Press and public aiding fight against crime, sheriff says

Public awareness, resulting from information carried by news media, has played a major role in the progress made in three major cases in Madison County, Sheriff John Maeras said Monday.

He praised the cooperation received by his office, and requested continued assistance in law enforcement operations. Maeras cited the March 7 identification of a woman's body as an example of the importance of getting information to the public.

"If we hadn't received a call from a person who recognized the victim through a description carried by local media, it might have been months before we could establish the identity of the deceased," Sheriff Maeras said.

"A little over two weeks ago, the press carried a full description of a rapist who had gained entry to a home by disguising himself as a policeman.

"A few days later, the same suspect tried again at another home. But because the occupant had read of the rape case in the newspaper, she refused to open the door and instead called this department."

"In this incident," Maeras said, "public awareness probably averted a repeat of a particularly loathsome type of crime."

The rape by the fake officer was reported by the Press-Record Feb. 24. In three later attempts to enter local homes, the intruder was thwarted.

The sheriff continued, "Investigation into a double homicide in February produced a suspect, several witnesses but two unknown victims."

"Though it took several days to recover even one of the bodies from the Mississippi River, tentative identification had been made in less than 48 hours."

"Again, we have a case where public response to a news story played a major part," Maeras said.

"The family of one of the girls recognized the clothing description and phoned our department."

"Photographs were obtained and shown to the witnesses, who made the identification."

Sheriff Maeras added, "The solution of crime is not the only law enforcement area affected by public response."

"Crime prevention can be greatly enhanced by concentrated public information."

"In June 1974, the Sheriff's Department started a 'Vacation Check' program in which vacationing families could call and have their homes checked by deputies during their absence."

Harris students to entertain

In honor of St. Patrick's Day and as part of a "Music in Our Schools" observance, 60 students of Harris elementary school will present a musical program at noon Wednesday, March 19, at the Madison Rotary Club meeting in the Madison Recreation Center.

The program will be under the direction of Mrs. Valerie Stevens of the Madison School District vocal music department.

Students will be from Miss Jackie Adams' second grade class and the third grade class taught by Mrs. Lois Brazill.

Musical numbers to be presented by the children will include "My Wild Irish Rose," "Mary," "Harrigan," "Happy Wanderer" and "High Hopes."

State specialists will try to upgrade E. St. Louis schools

Specialists in educational finance, management and program administration have been assigned by State Superintendent of Education Joseph M. Cronin to help East St. Louis District 189 upgrade its operations.

He said a team of 10 Illinois Office of Education staff members will work directly with East St. Louis school officials to provide "supervision and assistance" in implementing reforms suggested to the district last year. He has appointed an advisory committee of 10 educational leaders to provide overall coordination in the project.

In addition, the superintendent said a thorough evaluation of vocational and technical education in East St. Louis will be conducted this month by the state agency's Vocational Education Department under the leadership of Assistant Supt. Sherwood Does.

John Zorn of the Recognition and Supervision Department will coordinate the general assistance team.

"Illinois will pump millions of additional dollars into East St. Louis schools the next two years," said Dr. Cronin. "We want to make sure the money goes for quality education and to the staff actually teaching the children and adults who need the instruction."

He said Richard Haney, assistant superintendent in charge of the agency's Southern Illinois regional office, will chair the advisory committee.

The remaining members are St. Clair County Regional Education Supt. Lester Reuster; Decatur School Supt. Robert Oakes; Quincy School Supt. William G. Alberts; Assistant Peoria School Supt.

William Grant; Executive Directors John Wargo (Illinois Association of School Administrators), Harold P. Seamon (Illinois Association of School Boards) and Oscar A. Weil (Illinois Federation of Teachers); and Assistant Superintendents Ronald D. Reguly and Susan K. Bentz, both of the Illinois Office of Education.

The team of specialists, in addition to Zorn, are David Wilder and Paul Glick, business management; M. D. Clinton, federal programs; Walter Bartz, vocational education; Paul Woods, buildings; Goldie Spanos and Mary Jane King, food services; Barry Weiss, certifications; and Gordon Brown, alternative education.

Lloyd J. Hale, 66, of 2216 Dewey Ave., was found without signs of life in bed by his neighbors who called the authorities Monday morning. He was pronounced dead at the scene by Steven Howe, Madison County deputy coroner at 11:12 a.m. Monday.

There were no signs of foul-play. An inquiry will be conducted to determine the cause of death.

Born in Tamm, Ill., Mr. Hale resided here for 35 years. He was a long-time employee of Union Starch and Refining Co., and retired about two years ago.

Rites held for former resident

Funeral services were held this week at a funeral home in Illinois, Mo., for Otten Ragans, 73, of Illinois, formerly of Granite City.

Burial was in Lightner Cemetery in Illinois.

Mr. Ragans died on March 6 at the Southeast Missouri Hospital in Cape Girardeau, Mo., where he had been a patient three weeks for treatment of a heart ailment.

A 50-year resident of the area, he worked at Granite City Steel from Sept. 22, 1922, until his retirement June 30, 1967.

He and his wife, Mrs. Hazel Ragans, moved to Illinois in 1969.

Other survivors include a daughter Mrs. George P. Widel Sr. of Granite City; two stepsons, Winfred Layton Mayfield of Cape Girardeau and Stanley Mayfield of St. Charles, Mo.; two sisters, Mrs. Elsie Thomas and Mrs. Zula Cruse, both of Granite City; seven grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, four step-grandchildren and nieces and nephews.

Bar plans Law Day events

The Tri-Cities Bar Association will sponsor a community-wide discussion of the offense of perjury as a theme of its annual observance of Law Day. It was announced this week by William R. Haine, chairman of the bar association's program.

Law Day is observed nationwide on May 1 each year as a period for reflection by the people on the values and strengths of the legal system.

"We believe that perjury has been overlooked and sometimes completely forgotten because of the more sensational breaches of the law," Haine said.

"The lawyers also are of the opinion that an oath to tell the truth is so basic to our legal system that it might be called a cornerstone," Haine added.

The program chairman said he intended to ask the Granite City Ministerial Alliance to aid the bar association in this year's Law Day activities.

Haine said the bar association members believe that the clergy has a great importance in this area "since the duty to tell the truth under oath is as much a moral duty as a legal duty."

Various activities planned by the bar association will be announced as they are scheduled, Haine said.

GSI engineering offices to be moved to St. Louis

The GSI Engineering Division of General Steel Industries, Inc., will be moved to a building owned by the corporation at 8400 Midland Blvd., St. Louis County, where adequate space has become available.

W. Ashley Gray Jr., chairman of the board of GSI, announced this week.

The offices of the GSI Engineering Division have been at 1417 State St., Granite City, in quarters of the former-GSI Castings Division plant, and the division was considering another location in the Granite City area.

Gray praised Granite City officials, including Mayor Paul Schuler, for their cooperative efforts to help GSI Engineering find a suitable location. The division would have remained in Granite City, he said, except for the substantial savings involved in moving into the corporation's own building.

Keith L. Jackson is the general manager of GSI Engineering. The division licenses domestic and foreign producers to use its proprietary design for railroad and locomotive trucks and suspension systems. The division's technical staff also provides consulting services to the transportation industry.

The company had obtained a special use permit for use of the building at 2205 Poston Road for engineering offices, and remodeling work had begun before the decision to move the offices to St. Louis was made.

Mrs. McDowell, 70, dies

Mrs. Pearl Kathleen (Vaughn) McDowell, 70, of Rural Route Seven, Edwardsville, died at 11:10 p.m. Monday at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

She was in ill health about seven months and hospitalized 10 days.

Mrs. McDowell was a member of Trinity Tabernacle in Madison. She was born in Grandin, Mo., and had moved to Edwardsville 10 years ago.

Her husband, Earl A. McDowell, died in 1961. Surviving are two sons, Earl D. McDowell of Tomah, Wis., and Bruce T. McDowell of Edwardsville; a daughter, Mrs. Thurman (Marian) Brooks of Edwardsville; two sisters, Mrs. Ella McDowell of Collinsville and Mrs. Jettie Lassen of Madison, and two grand-children.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Held on fugitive warrant

Jimmie Darrell Poe, 25, of 2701 Cayuga St., who has been in St. Elizabeth Hospital since being seriously burned Feb. 4, was released from the hospital into police custody Monday.

Granite City officers arrested Poe in the emergency room as he was being released. They served him with a fugitive warrant and took him to the Granite City Jail. He later was released on $12,000 property bond.

Police said they are to begin proceedings to extradite Poe to St. Louis where he is wanted on a warrant alleging arson.

St. Louis Bombing and Arson Squad members allege Poe and another man were seen carrying paint cans Feb. 4 into a South St. Louis flat at 2801 Castleman Ave. An explosion occurred a few minutes later and witnesses said they saw one man blown through the doorway of the house and into the lawn.

The man, with his clothing on fire, ran to a pickup truck where another man was waiting, according to the witnesses.

The explosion collapsed the east and front walls of the building and caused the roof to collapse into the second floor. No one was at home at the time.

St. Louis police checked area hospitals for a burned man, finding Poe at St. Elizabeth Hospital. They took his clothing to St. Louis where six witnesses alleged it matched the clothing worn by the man who was blown from the flat in the explosion.

$20,000 law suit

Suit for $20,000 damages has been filed in Circuit Court at Edwardsville against the Yellow Cab Co., 1338 Nineteenth St., by Estelle Palmer who charges she was injured May 8, 1974, when a cab in which she was riding stopped suddenly. The complaint charged negligence.

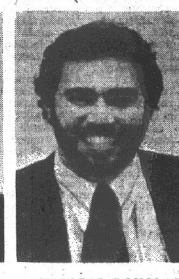

Incumbent, two rivals in First Ward council race

EVERETT MORLEN

JAMES C. STUART

CHARLES R. DOUGLAS

First Ward Alderman Everett "Cherry" Morlen, 65, of 2666 E. 24th St., seeks re-election in the April 1 election. He has held the City Council post for six years.

He has retired from Granite City Steel, where he served as a crane operator and was employed for 44 years.

Morlen has been a longtime member of the United Steelworkers, including Locals 11, 16 and 52. He is a former shop steward, safety committee member, treasurer and joint committee member.

Former vice-president of Local 16, he was a member of the AFL-CIO Tri-City Trades and Labor Council and a vice-president of the group.

Civic activities have included service as civil defense coordinator, AFL-CIO United Fund representative, senior citizens' affiliate, Golden Circle Club and March of Dimes committee.

Morlen was born in Ellipton, Mo., and attended schools there. He is married and has one son and four grandchildren.

In the city government, he has served on the Pollution, the Fire and Water and the Planning and Zoning Committees and the City Buildings Committee, Traffic Committee and Police Committee.

He has been appointed as a district crime committee member and has held membership in the Madison County Police Association.

"I am a property owner and taxpayer," Morlen comments in asking the public for "your vote and support."

He adds, "I'm a permanent resident of Ward One—for 44 years—and I pledge continuous availability."

GABRIEL SHRINE 78 TO ELECT TONIGHT

Mrs. Mary Ann DeHart, worthy high priestess of Gabriel Shrine 78, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, announced an election of officers will take place at 7:30 tonight.

Committee members who have served during the past year and a special surprise guest also will be honored at this evening's meeting at the Masonic Temple, Mrs. DeHart said.

One of the three Granite City candidates is James C. Stuart, 40, of 3001 E. 23rd St., a Granite City Steel employee 22 years and Granite City resident 20 years.

Schooled in Madison, Stuart served in the Navy during the Korean war.

Trustee of United Steelworkers Local 30, he is assistant grievance committee member and has been a shop steward nearly 30 years. He is a member of the Tri-City Trades and Labor Council and a board member of the Parents of Special Education.

Stuart received special awards from the Illinois Department of Mental Health in 1972, 1973 and 1974.

He and his wife, Edith, have three daughters, Edith Kay, 21, Mary Ann, 20, and Peggy Sue, 13, and a son, James Jr., 18.

He pledges to "give fair and equal representation to all the people of Granite City."

The candidate favors "speedy completion of the secondary sewage treatment plant," asserting that 1972 bids of $10 million were rejected and that the cost of the plant rose to $13½ million in 1974.

"We should check out and utilize port terminal facilities. We should make every possible effort to make use of government land along the Chain of Rocks Canal for new industry, bringing new jobs and tax dollars to our city," Stuart says.

"I am for making sure that adequate drainage is available to all of Granite City. We don't have it now."

"I would do all possible to keep present industry in Granite City, and I'd make known the potential Granite City has to offer industry—shipping facilities, trucking, rail, waterways and air freight."

"Utilities available are gas, oil, water, electricity and sewage disposal. Most important, we have the best union manpower available anywhere."

Stuart proposes to "utilize the police force by putting more men on the street during high crime-rate hours."

"We should utilize the health department, giving broader protection hours and cleaning up the disease-ridden humane shelter."

"I would try to set up a program to combat drug abuse here."

"Controlled permits on vending machines would give more tax dollars to the city treasurer. We need to make sure that city licenses are issued that all businesses have licenses."

"We need to build additional housing for the elderly, such as at The Anchorage homes. We should keep parks and playgrounds open to keep children off the streets, and do whatever possible to make additional playgrounds available."

"I would work constantly to better serve the people," he concludes.

Charles R. Douglas, 24, of 3010 Pershing Blvd., is one of three First Ward aldermanic candidates April 1.

Born in Granite City, he is a lifelong resident and attended Granite City High School. He holds a bachelor of science degree in mechanical engineering from the University of Illinois.

Currently he is a second-year law student at St. Louis University.

He financed college by working in the Engineering Co-op Program at McDonnell-Douglas in St. Louis. He worked as a mechanical engineer in the Engineering Department at Granite City Steel in 1972 before leaving to go to law school.

Douglas is a member of the Church of Christ, 23rd Street and Washington Avenue. He is unmarried.

He comments, "I am seeking an aldermanic position in Granite City for three reasons:

"First, I want to help Granite City, especially those of the First Ward, to achieve the goals and remedy the kind of problems that some have personally expressed to me."

"Second, I feel that a fresh, eager and enthusiastic alderman is more likely to perform those tasks and answer the requests of the people."

"Third, since my junior high school days, I've had a compelling interest in government and I want to try my hand at the wheel."

"The campaign issues for the aldermanic post are not as specific as if one were running for Congress or President, but some of the input that I have received concerns improved streets by providing curbing, controlling flooding, and repairing street conditions."

"Improved traffic controls, Rail Road crossings, and better protection of school children; garbage collection problems."

"Development of a crime protection program; introduction of more business to the community to curb our high unemployment rate; and a general clean-up campaign to make our city more attractive."

"The principal campaign issue is that the city and the First Ward need an alderman seriously willing to dedicate his time and hard work by first listening to the people and then by doing the job," Douglas concludes.

Telephone company cites higher operating costs

Illinois Bell Telephone Co. is seeking rate boosts from the Illinois Commerce Commission because of "a continuing rise in the cost of financing telephone service, and stiff competition for construction money to sustain excellent service."

President James E. Olson noted during the weekend that a traditional type of rate increase is being proposed because the ICC on Feb. 25 rejected Illinois Bell's proposed cost-efficiency plan.

The plan called for flexible rates, adjusted to partly offset cost changes.

Olson said the telephone company seeks an added $65 million a year to pay for costs already scheduled, and another $15 million to "get us to a level of earnings adequate in today's economy to continue to provide reliable service."

He pointed out that the proposed increases are linked to the optional or usage-based services which generate the company's higher costs.

"As a result," he said, "only about one-tenth of our proposed rate increases would be applied to basic monthly rates."

"Fully nine-tenths will be applied to services which are under your control; the number, distance and duration of the calls you make, and the extensions, special instruments and other optional services you choose for your home or office."

"What this means is that you will have a choice. You will have the chance to control how much these rate changes affect you by regulating how much and what kind of telephone service you want."

Olson singled out three specific "pay as you use" proposals for special mention:

1. A 20-cent charge for each call to directory assistance after an allowance of three free calls per month.
2. Timing local calls in Chicago and the close-in suburbs that also have measured basic services.
3. Increasing the rate for local calls from coin telephones to 20 cents from the present 10 cents.

It cost the company $55 million last year to provide directory assistance service, Olson said, and about half of those calls came from only about 10 per cent of the telephone users.

"Experience elsewhere has shown that three-fourths of telephone users will not have to pay anything for directory assistance calls because they now use directories to find most of the numbers they want," Olson said.

Today, local calls in Chicago are charged one message unit regardless of duration, Illinois Bell proposes to charge one unit for the first five minutes.

Additional periods of five minutes or less would be charged another unit, Olson explained.

"The longer a call lasts, the more it costs to provide that call. This is the basis on which you pay for long-distance calls and calls to distant suburbs.

"Most Chicago customers won't be affected by this proposed timing system. Studies show that 75 per cent of local calls from Chicago residence phones, and 85 per cent of business calls, last five minutes or less."

"We want to introduce this charging plan for local calls so that we will not have to raise the basic monthly rate. Instead, we will ask those who use more service to pay more for their service."

Local coin phone calls have been extended and improved. The increase in coin telephone rates would reflect those changes."

Olson said: "In 24 years the cost of the coin telephone itself has gone up 400 per cent."

"Maintenance costs have tripled."

"Meantime, service has been extended and improved. The increase in coin telephone rates would reflect those changes."

Franklin residents want street project priority

Residents of Franklin Avenue and surrounding blocks are working this week to seek ways of getting the area a high priority among proposed Granite City street improvement projects.

About 60 residents of that area met with city officials last week at the Nameoki Recreation Center to discuss poor drainage and other problems associated with Franklin Avenue.

The residents agreed to work together to find solutions to their problems and the consensus was the residents should meet again within a month to discuss plans the residents formulate during the period.

During last week's meeting, Mayor Paul Schuler of Granite City said, "I think the street should receive a number-one priority." He pledged his support for efforts to seek improvements.

He noted the area was annexed to the city 20 to 25 years ago and still is without curbing, gutters or drainage.

Schuler noted that a proposed storm sewer which has been let out for bids will provide some drainage relief to a portion of the street, but will not solve drainage problems in the 3500 and 3600 blocks.

The mayor said the residents met primarily to "vent their emotions" about the area being ignored for improvement projects.

He said improved sidewalks, street surfaces and other facilities also were mentioned.

Among those attending were: Robert W. Stevens, city clerk, who also is a resident of the area; Aldermen Emerald Daves and Ronald Coleman; city council candidates Frank Vesce and Donald Partney; and Street Superintendent Lionel Portell.

Air rifles used to damage windows

Five incidents of windows being damaged Saturday and Sunday by pellets from air rifles in Madison were reported to or discovered by police.

Mrs. Sharon Bridges, 2014 Edwardsville Road, at 11:50 p.m. Saturday called police and reported someone had shot two holes in her picture window. At 11:55 p.m., Pearl Stevens, operator of Steven's Grocery, 1506 Rhodes St., reported three holes in the store's plate-glass window.

At 4:25 p.m. Sunday, police while on patrol found windows at two business firms in the same building at 1858 Edwardsville Road each had pellet holes in them. A filling station in the 400 block of McCambridge Avenue also reported pellet damage Sunday to their windows.

Trade deficit in steel is growing

The United States had a steel trade deficit of almost $500 million in the first month of 1975 — the result of record January steel imports.

According to government data, 1,801,000 tons of foreign steel entered this country during the month. The value of January steel imports exceeded the value of U.S. exports of steel by $495,236,000.

In the four month period from the beginning of October to the end of January, 7,736,000 tons of foreign steel arrived in the U.S. This is equivalent to more than 23,300,000 tons on an annual basis.

Fines are distributed

February fines totaling $5,696 have been distributed to the Quad-Cities. Willard V. Portell, clerk of the circuit court for the Third Judicial Circuit, has announced.

The distributions were among $65,611 in fines the court has received and disbursed. Granite City received $4,046, Madison $708, Venice $538 and Pontoon Beach $404. The Madison County government received $17,490.

The total trade deficit in steel mill products during this period exceeded $1.2 billion, running at an annual rate of about $5.5 billion. Imports in January were the highest ever for any month by a wide margin. They were 420,000 tons higher than the previous record for the month — 1,381,000 tons, set in 1973. The 1,801,000 tons imported in January 1975 were also nearly one million tons higher than the steel import total for January 1974.

As this year began, foreign specialty steels continued to arrive in this country at a record rate. Stainless imports, for example, were 135 per cent above their total for January 1974. Alloy steel imports were nearly double those for January 1974, while imports of tool steel were up six per cent.

The average declared value for imported steel in January was $376.81 per ton. This compares with an average of $240.36 per ton in the same month last year.

Howlett in talk here commends students for patriotism

Illinois school children have a thorough knowledge of American history and a high degree of patriotism, Michael J. Howlett, Illinois secretary of state, said Tuesday.

Howlett was guest speaker at a joint luncheon meeting of the Granite City and Madison Rotary clubs in the Namode Recreation Hall here. Other area service clubs also were represented at the luncheon.

He said 400,000 elementary and high school pupils responded last year to the 1976 bicentennial license plant contest sponsored by his office.

One of the 42 finalists in the contest was a Granite City youth, Edward Belling, 18, of 2536 Pine St.

Howlett is now sponsoring an essay contest on the theme, "What Is the Spirit of '76'?" Any Illinois elementary or high school student may submit an entry up to June 1.

"A survey by Daniel Yankelovich, the social psychologist, indicated that young people, 16 to 25, didn't think patriotism is an important value," Howlett said.

"I do not challenge the validity of the poll. I don't know how many were polled. I would bet there weren't 400,000.

"But I know from experience with 400,000 respondents that Illinois boys and girls in grades one through 12 love their country and believe in it."

"Our office invited elementary and high school students to help design our bicentennial year license plant. It was the first time any state involved the public in selecting the design or color of its plate."

"Participants were asked to explain in 100 words or fewer why they chose the colors and symbols they used."

"The prize winner was designed by a 10-year-old girl, Kelley Jordan, a fourth-grader in Normal. It is red, white and blue, with lateral red stripes, 13 blue stars in two arcs above and below the plate number, with 1776 above the number and 1976 below it."

"She explained in these words: 'When you look at this license, I want it to look meaningful and recall past history and good news for tomorrow. The 13 stars represent the original 13 states. The 1776-1976 represents the 200th birthday of this nation's independence, and the red, white and blue colors stand for 'the colors of our great nation.'"

"Edward Belling, the oldest of three sons of William and Carolyn Belling, was 17, a senior at Granite City High School North, when his design finished among the 42 finalists."

"This year, he is working in a music store and playing bass guitar in a band while deciding whether or not to continue his schooling."

"His design also was red, white and blue. On the corners of the plate he featured our state bird, the cardinal; our state flower, the violet; a silhouette of Illinois and a star, symbolizing Illinois as one of the 50 stars in Old Glory."

"He won a set of encyclopedias for his school by demonstrating his knowledge of our American heritage."

"Anyone who has no love for our country has not studied its history as these boys and girls did."

"We are the land of the free. Our way of life, self-government under a constitution, attracted immigrants to our land who had known oppression but knew where to find freedom."

"We have problems — in-fighting, crime, shortages, crime, discrimination."

"But there are no problems we cannot solve under the peaceful democratic processes that have carried us through the last 200 years."

"We do have a few Americans who are dissatisfied with our country and say they would like to live elsewhere."

"But a much larger number, who are now living somewhere else, would rather come here."

"Our essay competition will give young people another way to express their feelings about our country."

"The license plant contest, it will be divided into three divisions — red for grades one through four, white for grades five through eight, and blue for grades nine through 12."

"Instructions are being distributed in public, parochial and private schools. Principals will be asked to select the two best essays in divisions of their schools. Their selections will be sent to my office."

"Special subcommittees of newspaper editors are being formed in each of the 24 congressional districts. They will select the top essays of each division."

"Their 72 choices will be sent to our bicentennial committee, the same group of citizens who picked the winners in the license plate contest."

"The committee will pick the best essay in each division."

Each will be published in the 1976-77 Illinois Blue Book with a photo of the author.

"The grand champion, chosen from the final three, will receive a $1,000 educational savings bond. The two runners-up will be awarded $500 bonds. Winners will be announced this fall."

"The license plant contestants proved they knew how we became the strongest, greatest, most compassionate nation in the world."

"The essay contestants will give us more proof that young people have a feeling for our way of life. They will create new wonders we haven't dreamed of."

"The 200th anniversary of our independence will not be the end of our world leadership. It will be only the beginning," Howlett concluded.

He was introduced by Dr. George T. Wilkins Sr., a past district Rotary governor, who was Illinois superintendent of public instruction until 1962.

End monitoring of grain export

"It looks like the farmer finally has been heard in Washington. We don't have to live with the embargo anymore."

That was the reaction State Agriculture Director Robert J. "Pud" Williams had to the lifting of the grain export monitoring system announced Thursday by Agriculture Secretary Earl Butz. Williams had been publicly pushing for an end to the controls.

Last week in Washington, Williams met with congressmen and U. S. Department of Agriculture officials while attending a national conference of state agriculture directors.

"We are the land of the free. Our way of life, self-government under a constitution, attracted immigrants to our land who had known oppression but knew where to find freedom."

New political constituency developing

Describing what he called "the rise of a new constituency" on the American political scene, onetime presidential press secretary George Reedy said a Southern Illinois University at Carbondale audience that reverence toward government is a thing of the past.

"Wide scale cynicism and disillusionment has set in," said the former press secretary to late President Lyndon B. Johnson.

"People do not have the same sense of reverence that was characteristic in the nation just 20 or 30 years ago."

Reedy, now dean and the Nieman professor of journalism at Marquette University, described the history of politics in America as "an interesting form of political brokerage."

Throughout most of the nation's history, he said, Americans thought of themselves in terms of what they did to produce goods and services for economic survival.

"In this period," he said, "there was a type of political leadership which became fanatic in finding out what different groups wanted—whether they were farmers, professionals, or blue-collar workers."

In the last 10 years, the brokerage system has broken down, said Reedy in his March address. He said the breakdown occurred not just through lack of leadership and political vision, but also through a clogged system of communication.

The resulting cynicism and loss of respect, according to Reedy, is linked to the American society. The system itself is marked by "the continuing separation of people from the production process."

Pursuing the characterization, Reedy said vast numbers of Americans have nothing to do with producing goods; they only take part in consuming them.

"The resulting gap has meant a shift in social and political relations. The new constituents—mostly middle class and blue collar—are looking for answers that traditional politics can't come up with."

"Most political leaders are still talking in terms of political issues that no longer have the power to stir passion," Reedy said. "The one man who can stir passion today is George Wallace."

But Reedy can't see Alabama Gov. Wallace in the White House. "He doesn't have that certain type of respectability that Americans demand from their President."

Reedy said that because of "deep social change," political leaders are hard to find.

Describing the last presidential election as a contest between older, conservative forces and the new constituency, Reedy said the failure of the new constituency to get very far was not an indication of strength, but an indication of inexperience.

He predicted that the emerging political mentality will result in a "permanent change in the system."

Reedy spoke at SIUC as part of a symposium sponsored by the university's political science department.

Urge exams for past radiation therapy patients

Dr. Joyce Lashof, director of the Illinois Department of Public Health, has sent a message to a broad range of medical and family practitioners and internal medicine specialists urging them to have examinations performed on patients who had radiation therapy to the neck or face area ten to 25 years ago.

Dr. Lashof said she is urging this action because of an apparent association between thyroid cancer and previous treatments by radiation for enlarged thymus, acne, enlarged tonsils or adenoids, or other conditions. Such treatment was not uncommon during the 1950s, she said.

According to Dr. Lashof, a Chicago study has reported results of examination of 100 persons treated during childhood with irradiation to the neck area who sought examination because of the association between the past irradiation and thyroid cancer. Thyroid abnormalities were found in 26 of these patients.

Surgery was recommended in 16 cases, and performed in 15. Seven of the 15 patients were found to have cancer of the thyroid, and in five of these cases the cancer had spread to other parts of the body.

"The interval between appearance of thyroid neoplasia," Dr. Lashof said, "has been from 9.6 to 25 or more years after exposure to radiation, depending on the age of the person when first exposed and the size of the radiation dose."

Dr. Lashof advised anyone who may have been given radiation therapy in the neck area between 1950 and 1965 to contact his or her physician as soon as possible.

If it's March, it must be kite flying season

By CATHERINE R. MAUCK
Madison County Extension Adviser-Domestic Economics

Budding young astronauts and jet pilots, who begin their career by flying kites during windy spring days, need some safety assistance from parents.

Kite-flying should be a child-parent project right from the start. Once your child has chosen his kite, check to be sure the kite is safe from the standpoint of materials used and the working mechanism.

Metal or wire in the kite, or the string attached to it is a safety hazard.

If your child is small, be sure that the kite is scaled to his size and strength. A large kite caught by a strong gust of wind can become hard to handle.

Make it a rule to fly the kite with your child—at least during the first few times until he can handle the kite and is aware of the dangers involved.

Choose a safe spot for launching the kite. An open area with no traffic and away from high-tension wires is a wise choice. Most communities have at least one field or park where kite-flyers can gather.

It's important to explain to a child the "don'ts" of kite-flying. For instance, don't fly a kite on a rainy day because there is danger of electrical shock from lightning.

Also, it's important to keep the string dry because a wet string can become a conductor of electricity and the kite-flyer can be severely shocked.

Explain, too, that he should not attempt to retrieve the kite himself if it catches on a tree or lands on a roof top.

This traditional spring sport can be dangerous if you ignore the safety rules of kite-flying.

125 at World Day of Prayer

A total of 125 women from 23 area churches attended the Church Women United World Day of Prayer last week at Nameoki United Presbyterian Church. The observance was an action of concern in which they joined others in 148 countries in a celebration of Christian unity.

The Rev. Don Peterson, pastor, offered the invocation and welcomed the guests to the newly renovated church.

The musical portion of the program consisted of organ music by Mrs. Dale Edwards and vocal solos by Mrs. Richard Branding, entitled "The Task" and "Fill My Cup, Lord."

Appropriate readings were led by Mrs. James Ruth, Mrs. James Henderson and Mrs. Ronald Pennell, general chairman of the event.

Using the theme, "Water for Women," the main program consisted of a series of 90 slides with accompanying narration depicting the plight of food and water-starved countries.

The dialogue, presented by Mrs. John Lee and created by Mrs. David Maxton and Mrs. John Gordon, graphically described the dire and immediate nutrition needs of the "Third World" nations.

After the presentation, Mrs. Henderson, CWU president, announced a short range goal of the local unit is to provide enough funds to drill one well in a needy country.

Cost of the well, approximately $250, hopefully will be covered by small donations from the individuals attending, as well as by their concerned friends. Mrs. Henderson explained. Cups were distributed for that purpose, to be returned with the offerings on May 2 at the group's May Fellowship celebration.

A coffee hour preceded the event, hosted by the Women of the Church, under the direction of Mrs. Leroy Britton.

Academy to fight heavy fire losses, death rate

Cong. Paul Simon wants Illinois in the running for an eagerly-sought national fire academy to be modeled on the highly successful Federal Bureau of Investigation Academy.

The 24th District Democrat, who succeeded retired Rep. Kenneth Gray, advanced the proposal at a joint news conference in Carbondale arranged by Southern Illinois University and Southern Illinois, Inc., a private non-profit group promoting area development.

The Downstate backers are recommending the abandoned Vocational Technical Institute formerly operated by SIU near the Carbondale campus.

President Gerald Ford on Oct. 29 signed into law the Federal Fire Prevention and Control Act of 1974. It authorizes the Department of Commerce to establish a National Academy for Fire Prevention and Control "at the earliest practical date."

The law requires the Commerce secretary to "make a final site selection not later than two years after the date of enactment of this act," or by Oct. 29, 1976.

Simon's aides say the Commerce Department has already received 36 site offers from around the country.

The applications are simply being acknowledged, pending completion of a national fire prevention and control administration within the department, and appointment of an academy site selection board.

The White House has advised Simon that Pres. Ford expects to nominate a permanent administrator in March for the Senate's confirmation. The administrator will nominate an academy superintendent for the Commerce secretary's approval.

The site selection board to be appointed by the Commerce secretary will include the academy superintendent and two other members. The board will "survey the most suitable sites" and make recommendations to the secretary.

Acting on a national commission's detailed findings that the United States has the highest per capita death rate and property loss from fire of all the major industrialized nations in the world, Congress now on the commission's 90 recommendations to create the new fire administration.

Congress found "unacceptable" such annual fire losses as 12,000 deaths, 300,000 injured, and $3 billion in destroyed property.

In the final bill signed into law by President Ford, Congress authorized $45.5 million in fiscal 1975-76 to establish a comprehensive fire prevention and control program to be located primarily within the commerce department.

Under the law, the Commerce secretary will establish the National Academy for Fire Prevention and Control "to advance the professional development of fire service personnel and of other persons engaged in fire prevention and control activities."

Congress authorized a $9 million construction appropriation to remain available until expended, and recommended that surplus government property be considered in site selection.

The conference committee, in reconciling differences between House and Senate versions of the bill, said a "central training facility for the nation's firefighting forces is of the highest priority if the effort to reduce losses from fires is to succeed."

The committee pointed out that the national fire academy is not to become "a large, degree-granting institution on the model of the service academies, the Coast Guard Academy or the Merchant Marine Academy." Rather, it is to be "modeled on the highly successful FBI Academy and on a number of national fire academies abroad."

The national fire academy is envisaged as a "small but excellent campus with first-class staff and facilities" to serve as a "focal point for the professional training of fire officers."

The fire academy superintendent will have authority to conduct "short courses, seminars, workshops, conferences and similar activities in all parts of the United States."

Congress said the academy will be open to members of the firefighting, rescue and civil defense forces of the country, or to candidates for such forces.

It called for "adequate representation of all geographic areas" in the student body. The act provides for a board of visitors to the fire academy, made up of eight professional members selected by the Commerce secretary. The board is to make an annual review and report its recommendations to the secretary.
